Kidney benefit dance Sunday

Radio disc jockey Deano Day of WDEE will help host a benefit dance Sunday for the Kidney Foundation of Michigan, with the proceeds going to the drug bank for kidney patients.

Sponsored by Johnny Johnson, a Romulus kidney transplant patient, and the Road Rangers Club, Inc., the benefit will begin at 2 p.m. Sunday and last until 2 a.m. Monday at 23925 Goddard Rd., Taylor.

Tickets cost $1 for the affair which will feature several well-known bands who will donate their time. Also, 50-50 raffle tickets will be sold and half the proceeds will go to the Kidney Foundation. Drawing for the raffle will be at 11 p.m.

For tickets or other information, call Johnson at 941-0888 or Mamie Slencker at 326-4110.

Pay Your CARRIER This Week

The carrier who delivers that newspaper to your door will be calling on you this week to collect $1 for the five deliveries in November. Your carrier has been instructed to give you a receipt upon payment. Your receipt will entitle you to one pair of slacks cleaned with each man's or woman's suit cleaned at the Wayne and Fisher Dry Cleaning plants, located at 35132 Michigan Avenue West, Wayne. Prompt payment will be appreciated, as your carrier has a payment deadline to meet. If you have any suggestions on how your service can be improved, inform your carrier, or call 729-4000. Thank you.

Mayor starts ball rolling

Petitions seek post office

By BOB AMEEN
ANP Staff Writer

The wheels have been set in motion for a new post office for the city of Romulus. Petitions bearing at least 1,000 names were scheduled to be turned in at last night's city council meeting urging the construction of a new postal facility.

A total of 50 petitions were handed out nearly two weeks ago by Mayor William M. Oakley at a meeting of "We the People". In his remarks to the audience, the mayor said he would like to see a new post office built in the city.

Coincidentally, at the same meeting, D. G. Fassett, managing editor of Associated Newspapers, had expressed hope that a new full-time postal facility would be one of the incoming administration's first priorities.

According to Jay Young, chief public information officer for the city, many of the original 50 petitions had already been returned complete with signatures of those backing the new post office.

Young said that Romulus' old full-time post office was closed in 1976 as the result of a national economy move by the federal government. Since then, only two windows in the old building on Shock Street have been in operation to sell stamps, money orders, food stamps and provide some parcel post service.

At its peak capacity, the old Romulus post office employed 20 mail carriers who worked out of the building. Currently, Young said, only an acting postmaster and two clerks are housed there.

He explained that mail now coming into Romulus is received at the old post office, transferred to the Taylor post office, and then delivered in the city by Romulus mail carriers who work out of the Taylor facility.

Young said that Oakley was prompted to move on the new post office when he came across mail on his desk which had been sent to former Mayor James C. Stewart back on Sept. 27.

The correspondence from Joseph J. Loukotka, Detroit postmaster, had informed Stewart that the U.S. Postal Service was looking into the possibility of restoring full-time postal service to Romulus.

Noting that his predecessor had not replied, Oakley decided to have petitions circulated urging the return of a full-time postal operation.

Young said that the mayor was hopeful that council would act unanimously on his resolution for the new post office. If so, Oakley plans to send the passed resolution to state and federal officials, including Gov. William G. Milliken, Cong. William Ford, Sen. Donald Riegle, President Jimmy Carter and others.

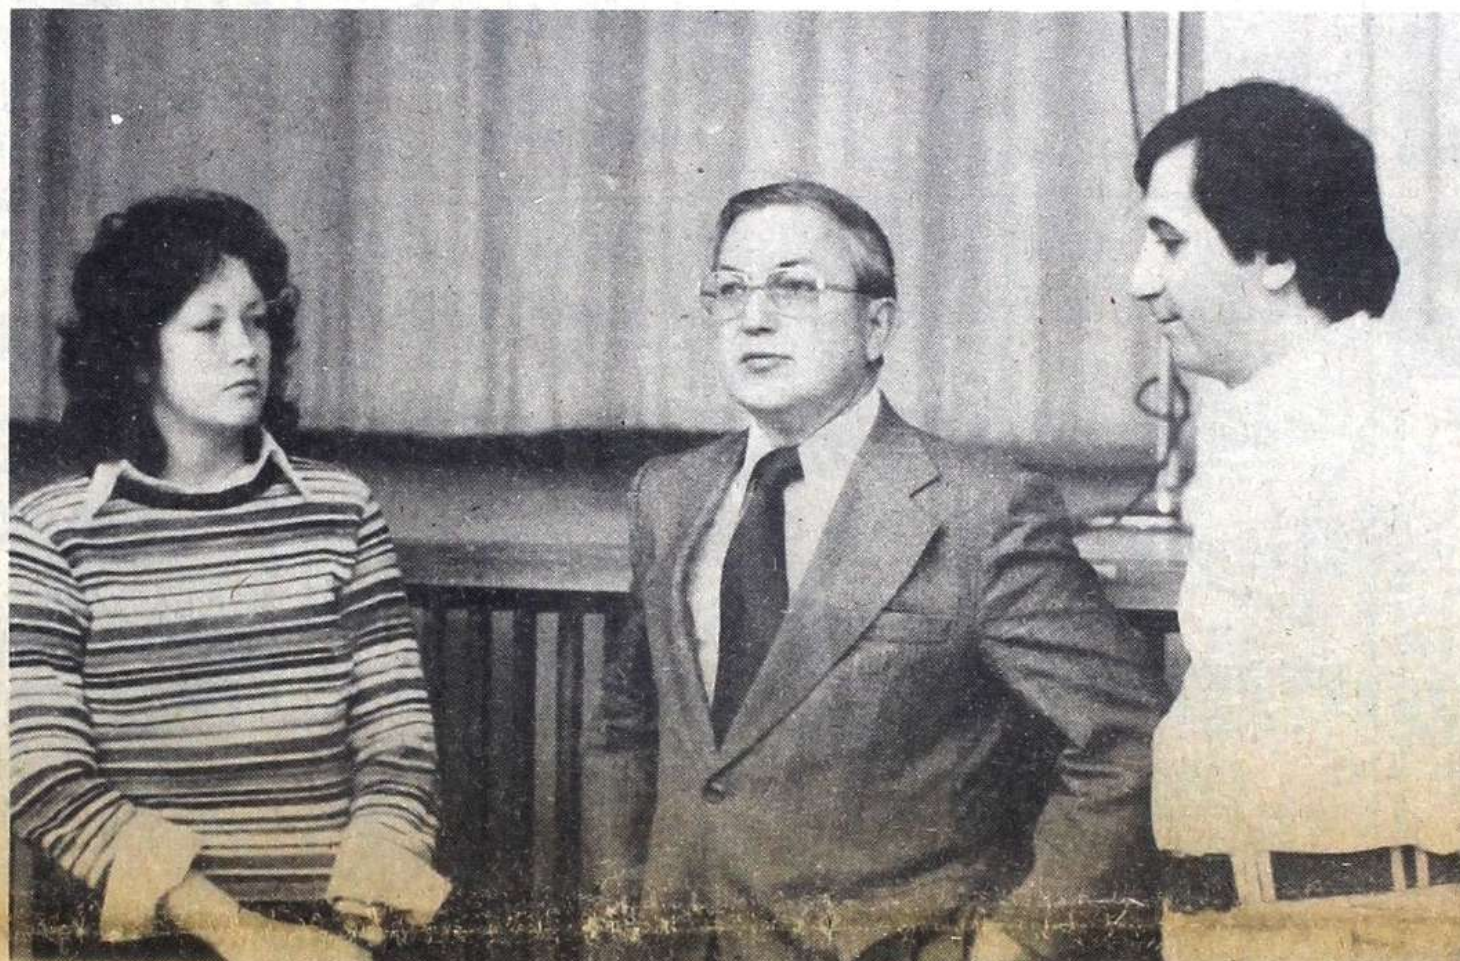

At the time that the old post office was closed, a letter from Cong. Ford to the city indicated the action was only a "temporary" shift of postal personnel to Taylor, Young said.

He added that the Detroit postmaster's letter last September to Stewart inquired as to the possibility of renting space to provide fulltime postal service as a first alternative. The building of a new post office was to be considered later if the rental plan fell through, Young said.

Should a new post office be constructed in Romulus, Young explained, Oakley believes it can be erected south of the new court building now nearing completion in the civic center complex on Wayne Road.

He said the government owns property for that location and that the mayor feels it to be a feasible site for a new post office building.

With the city of Romulus now having a population of some 25,000 residents, those persons circulating the petitions for a new post office facility, as well as the many others signing them, feel that the community is large enough to warrant full-time postal service.

Cong. Ford visits Romulus High School

Congressman William Ford visited Romulus High School recently to give a lecture to the government class and to answer their questions about current events. The Congressman is shown here (center) with student Denise Hunter, whose invitation brought Ford here, and with government class teacher Rod Hanna. Hanna said Ford's visit was a meaningful experience for all who attended.

ANP's "Lothar" is recovering from near-fatal crash injuries

Lothar E. Konietzko, 52, chief photographer for Associated Newspapers, is recovering from near-fatal injuries received in an automobile accident Nov. 18 in downtown Wayne.

Konietzko, well known in all of the communities covered by ANP, was taken out of the intensive care unit Sunday and placed in a two-bed room at Annapolis Hospital in Wayne.

When taken to the hospital late Friday afternoon on the day of the crash, doctors reported he was near death and gave him little chance to live.

A flood of calls, letters and cards have been sent to the hospital and ANP offices in Wayne since the accident. Prior to Sunday, only immediate members of his family had been permitted to see him.

A familiar face to subscribers of ANP-circulated newspapers for the last 25 years, Konietzko is a special friend to area senior citizens, service clubs, veteran organizations and children of all ages, many of whom have already written to him. His periodic photographs of wildlife have become a favorite with area readers.

"Lothar", as he is known to his friends, is now in Room 571 at Annapolis Hospital in Wayne. He will welcome hearing from his acquaintances and friends.

Konietzko, always known as a great kisser, quipped at the hospital, "I even got flowers from a car dealer whom I never bought a car from in my life."

Urge citizens to participate

Members of 13 Romulus organizations and nine PTA groups are being urged to get involved in the Citizen Participation Plan, sponsored and coordinated by city's Community Development Administration.

According to Stephen Bonczek, community development director, letters have been sent to these groups asking their members to become more involved in local affairs.

Now in its fourth year, the Citizen Participation Plan is developed by the city of Romulus in line with federal requirements. The requirements state that "every community that receives Community Development Block Grant funds must develop a process (plan) for citizens to participate in community development efforts."

Spearheading local organizations is the Lions Club, which already has indicated its willingness to participate in the plan.

Bonczek said guidelines set up by city residents forbid the Citizen Participation Plan to become involved in partisan politics, including endorsement of candidates. (The plan can, however, be involved with communication, consumer protection, culture, community development, economic development, education, environment, health services, housing, municipal government, natural resources, planning and zoning, public improvements, public safety, recreation, social services, transportation and utilities.)

Future programs of the Community Development Administration call for the city's public information officer to make specialized surveys and to issue quarterly reports to stimulate community involvement.

Picked from 7 nominees

Mike Woods fills board vacancy

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

An overflow crowd was in attendance Monday night as the Romulus School Board appointed a new member to fill a vacancy and also named Gordon Silvey as vice-president to replace Jack Bath, who recently resigned. Newest member of the school board is Mike Woods, 27, a graduate of Romulus High School and a lifelong resident of the city.

Woods was named to replace Bath, who resigned two weeks ago. Wayne Avery nominated Woods and was supported by Shirley Lombardi.

The vote was 4-2, with Avery, Lombardi, Gloria Chandler and Gordon Silvey voting yes, and President Gerald Budd and Treasurer Ron Christensen dissenting.

From an original list of seven applicants, the board narrowed the choice to Woods and Jason Lovette, a former board member, and finally decided on Woods.

Woods and his wife are lifelong residents of Romulus and both graduated from Romulus High School. He graduated from Wayne State University with a major in political science.

An insurance man, Woods also holds the part-time position of Romulus Director of Public Housing.

"I'm especially pleased to see a man of Woods' caliber named to fill the vacancy," said Avery, who nominated the newest board member.

"All seven who applied for the position were highly qualified and the board as a whole was gratified to see much interest shown by people who want to give of themselves to the community."

Woods, whose term runs until June 12, 1978, will be sworn in at the next board meeting Dec. 12.

Many in the audience had come in response to a letter sent out by school administration stating 38 students would be transferred from Hale Creek elementary school on Dec. 1 to Mt. Pleasant school.

MIKE WOODS

A letter was sent out dated Nov. 22 saying that the 38 students would be transferred on a voluntary basis first, and if not enough volunteered, the rest would be taken from students who enrolled last.

However, another letter, dated Nov. 23, came on the heels of the first, listing the names of those who were to be transferred by administration.

Among the parents most upset over the quick action was Daniel Doss, who obtained the services of a lawyer, and delivered a two-page letter to the school board claiming his civil rights were being violated by transferring his children without due notice.

The board, agreeing the action was too precipitous, tabled the item.

Administration listed the overcrowding of Hale Creek as the reason for the need to transfer the 38 students. Currently, the learning center-art room and music room are being used for regular classes.

In other board action, Rod Hanna was named head basketball coach and Charles Shamey asst. basketball coach at Romulus High School.

Wayne Schimming was appointed new head wrestling coach and Ossilyn Woods is the cheerleading advisor.

In other action involving junior high schools, Dennis Stoh is head basketball coach at South Junior High while Don Foley was named head cage mentor at North Junior High.

Michael Abdo was appointed wrestling coach of both the Romulus junior high schools.

'Senior of the Month'

Myron Jones: Think young to feel young

By MAUREN BEATTY

Our November "Senior of the Month" is Myron Jones of Romulus. Myron was born in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., in 1901.

Shortly before Myron turned six his father died. Myron's mother then moved her family to Washington, where they could spend happy days on an uncle's ranch. In 1914, however, his family again moved, this time to Detroit. Myron attended Webster School on 21st Street, but at the age of 16 quit school to help his family. Myron's first job was as a delivery boy for Cunningham's Drug Store — his pay, $6 a week.

Another move took place, this time back to Poughkeepsie where he learned the machine trade. During this time Myron also spent a year in a New York hospital with tuberculosis.

In 1919, Myron made his last big move — back to Detroit. He went to work for the Moshell Printing Co., adding another trade to his accomplishments. He worked at Moshell for 18 years where he helped print a newspaper called "The Detroit."

In 1929 Myron married his first wife and opened a printing business in his home. In 1933, a year that changed the future of many when the banks were closed, Myron lost $30,000 dollars, money he had intended to use to expand his printing business.

Myron married his present wife, Lois, in 1937 and moved to Romulus where he owned property. During World War II, Myron went to work at Stinson Aircraft Co., once again using his knowledge of the machine trade.

At home Myron began raising chickens and selling eggs. In 1946 Myron returned from a visit up north with two cases of eggs. The sale of these put him seriously into the egg business. He was soon selling approximately 1,800 dozen eggs a week. With business doing so well, Myron added the sale of coffee to his egg route.

Myron prospered on his egg route until 1954 when he lost two-thirds of his business. He blames this on the cholesterol scare. He remembers a few old customers to this day, however, making sure they have their egg supply.

As though fate had not struck enough blows, Lois suffered a cerebral hemorrhage in 1974, leaving her partially paralyzed.

All these problems, though, have not dampened Myron's enthusiasm for life or his desire to help others. In 1969 Myron bought what he describes as a cheap tape recorder and began simulating radio programs and making tapes for the blind. At his own expense, he mails these tapes to interested persons anywhere in the country. A person receiving them need only abide by what Myron calls his "rules and regulations" for the tapes.

Myron is working on a new program. It is to be called "Strangers in a Foreign Land", and will be about travel in Europe and the Holy Land.

Myron, who is known as "The Old Philosopher" on his tapes, left us with these thoughts: "Think young and you will feel young," and "The quickest way to double your money is to fold it once and put it back in your pocket."

That magic touch

Jeff Wawrzaszek, a student at Eastern Michigan University, performed magic for grades Kindergarten through sixth grade at Beverly Elementary School in Romulus last week. The appearance of the magician was arranged for teacher Barbara Krogsrud by Gary Mikola of the career education department of Romulus School. Wawrzaszek, who presently holds the "Jack Gwynne Traveling Trophy for 1977", an award given annually by the Abbotts Magic Co. of Colon, Mich., during its magicians' convention. Beverly School prepared for the prestidigitator's visit by studying careers and activities relating to magic. Wawrzaszek was assisted by a young student (below) whose name also was Jeff. The pictures were snapped by Mikola. After the show, Wawrzaszek answered questions about how he got started, how long he's been doing magic and what other interests he has besides the art of prestidigitation. Wawrzaszek answered every question except one. He wouldn't tell how he did his tricks. "A magician never tells his secrets," he said. The young magician received a large round of applause when he finished.

County to monitor state's proposals

Wayne County Commissioner George Killeen of Detroit has announced a new county policy to closely monitor and influence state legislation that would have an impact on Wayne County — particularly if it involves spending more money.

"We plan to take a more vigorous approach toward proposed and pending legislation to see that our interests are better served," Killeen said. "We'll be waving a red flag at any state bill that requires the county to pay for new services or programs."

"If the state mandates a new expenditure, we're going to insist that it be paid for with state funds."

Killeen said the "new hardline approach" is contained in a "State Legislative Policy and Procedure Statement", adopted by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners Nov. 1.

The policy was developed by the board's Legislative Subcommittee of which Killeen is chairman. Other members are commissioners Alex Pilch of Dearborn and William Sullivan of Wayndotte.

Killeen said that an example of a state proposal that might carry a county price tag would be a bill to raise judges' salaries.

Under the new policy, county officials would oppose that proposal unless the state paid the increased cost.

Pilch explained that the new "red-flag" system is necessary in the wake of the county's recent fiscal crisis.

"The 1977-78 county budget is about as austere as a monk's room with about as much flexibility as a lead pipe," Pilch said. "Just about every penny has been allocated, leaving no room to pay for any new programs coming out of Lansing, whether they are mandated or optional."

Pilch said the subcommittee would recommend legislative priorities to the board's General Government Committee which, in turn, would recommend action to the full Board of Commissioners.

He added: "This subcommittee will be working closely with the county fiscal advisor, department heads and our legislative agent in Lansing to make sure that state legislators are painfully aware of the financial impact their proposals would have on the citizens of Wayne County."

Romulus High VICA Club officers attend state meet

Romulus High School vocational students attend the recent state officers training conference for the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA).

Officers from the school for small engine repair, auto mechanics and health occupations classes attended. The students were elected in their vocational sections to represent the class.

Those attending were: small engine — Damon Fowler, President; David Zilka, secretary; Steven Yandura, secretary; Jeff Schonscheck, treasurer; Jim Helmuth, reporter; auto mechanics — Rick Zavitz, parliamentarian; Tim Hutchinson, vice president; Dean Gilbert, secretary-treasurer; Paul Lewkowicz, president; Jim Albertsburg, vice president; and health occupations — Julie Chardbee, president; Denise Hunter, treasurer; Juan Calvo, vice president; and Stuart Kerr, reporter.

The conference was the fifth annual officers training conference held in Grand Rapids at the Pantlind Hotel. Vocational students from all over the state participated in the two-day conference Nov. 10 and 11. This was the first year since 1973 that RHS vocational students participated.

The students attended four general sessions during the two days, hearing several guest speakers. After each session, the members broke up into small training groups to study and learn. Topics included: "You and Your Office", "The Official Business Meeting", "Introductions and Public Speaking" and "Self Development Through Self Competition".

Several of the Romulus students competed for trophies by simulating a business meeting. The students were required to form teams of six persons and each team member had to be from a different school. Students competing were Damon Fowler, Tim Hutchinson, Steve Yandura and Stuart Kerr.

The main goal of the senior high VICA Club is to give the vocational student a positive attitude about themselves and the occupation in which they have chosen to train.

Davey Singers, Asner in benefit concert

A benefit show featuring television star Ed Asner and the Max Davey Singers Sunday in Detroit's Ford Auditorium will benefit the Wayne County chapter of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Tickets for the Sunday afternoon show will be $10. The performance begins at 2 p.m. The show also can be seen at 8:30 p.m. Saturday for members of Concert Series Inc., and regular customers at $6.50 per ticket. Tickets are available at Ford Auditorium.

For information on the benefit show, call the Easter Seal headquarters in Inkster at 722-3065.

Honorary chairman of the benefit is Gerald Ebmeier, district governor for this area for Rotary International clubs. The Rotary Club is assisting the Easter Seal Society in promoting this event.

The program features Ed Asner, multiple-

Emmy winner on television and star of "The Lou Grant Show". Asner is well-known for his starring role in the popular "Mary Tyler Moore Show" and for performances in television presentations of "Rich Man, Poor Man" and "Roots".

He will be narrator and storyteller of the Christmas presentation performed by the Max Davey Singers.

The show will consist of three segments, all accompanied by music by the Max Davey Orchestra backing up the singing and dancing.

The first is in a toy shop, with Asner describing the events and the Davey chorus singing familiar standards such as "Satin Doll" and "Be a Clown".

The second setting is medieval, with elegant costumes and Christmas songs.

Many of the songs will be original compositions by Lan O'Kun.

The finale is a special holiday spectacle, featuring the children of the Davey singers and dancers in their premier performance with the group.

The proceeds from the benefit show will enable the Easter Seal Society to continue its work of research, care and treatment of the victims of crippling disease.

The Wayne County society first opened in 1957, and through the years has expanded its programs to include recreation, rehabilitation, therapy, human services, vocational evaluation and other supportive programs such as loaning wheelchairs and equipment and constructing ramps. To take advantage of the services, call the Inkster location at 722-3055.

The Rotary clubs have been especially involved over the years in fund raising and promotion of the Easter Seal Society.

Mahalak urges moratorium on boundary change

Because of questions raised by a recent Michigan Supreme Court decision, State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak (D) Romulus, has urged the state boundary commission to place a temporary moratorium on any decisions on boundary changes or annexations.

In a resolutions introduced in the House, Mahalak asked for the moratorium until such time as a special committee appointed by the governor to review boundary change practices and procedures issues its recommendations.

The special committee was established in July.

"The Supreme Court ruling has raised major questions about boundary change procedures and annexations and on the authority of the boundary commission," Mahalak said.

"A temporary moratorium would serve to avoid future confusion, disputes and litigation."

In a decision handed down by the Supreme Court late in October, the court reversed a court of appeals ruling which found the annexation law unconstitutional for amending another law by implication and for encompassing a subject not expressed in the title of that law.

The Supreme Court held that the Legislature acted constitutionally in giving annexation authority to the boundary commission through an amendment to the Home Rule Cities Act, rather than in the act creating the commission.

The constitutionality of state law giving the boundary commission power to approve annexation requests by cities had been challenged by three townships.

Mahalak said it is expected that the Michigan Townships Association will ask for a rehearing of the case by the Supreme Court.

Mahalak noted that the day after the Supreme Court decision, the city of Monroe filed several petitions for annexation of parts of Monroe Township.

He said he immediately received numerous letters from township residents protesting the action, which prompted him to introduce his resolution asking for the temporary moratorium.

Cite rate hike by Detroit

Confusion on water, sewer bills explained

Confusion over sizable increases in Romulus water and sewer bills in the last few months has prompted an explanation to be sent to all local users by Michael Herman, director of water and sewer billing.

Last year, Herman said, Detroit boosted its cost to the city by 71 percent for water and 197 percent for sewer. At this time, the city of Romulus was charging residents $2.50 per 1,000 cubic feet for water and 70 percent of that rate for sewer per 1,000 cubic feet, he added.

When the city was audited in 1976 by Icerman, Johnson and Hoffman of Ann Arbor, the firm recommended that water rates would have to be increased to $5.50 per 1,000 cubic feet to break even, Herman explained. Sewer charges, computed at 70 percent of that rate, then became $3.85 per 1,000 cubic feet, he said.

As an emergency measure, the Romulus City Council approved the temporary hikes to enable the water and sewer department to cover its costs, he said.

To determine what rates were actually needed to make the department self supporting, the city early this year hired the professional consulting firm of Jones and Henry of Toledo, Ohio. After its study, the firm recommended that water rates be raised to $4.25 per 1,000 cubic feet and sewer rates be hiked to $6.06 per 1,000 cubic feet, Herman reported.

He said the city council adopted the new higher charges and that city residents could expect to see them reflected in coming quarterly billings.

Although the change from the old $2.50 rate to the temporary higher charges resulted in billings of about twice the normal amount, the new permanent rates have brought costs for the two services down slightly from the temporary ones.

For example, Herman explained, total charges for 30 units, or 3,000 cubic feet, under the temporary higher rates, would have cost users $29.55. Under the new permanent rates, total cost to the consumer is $26.98, Herman said.

A water and sewer fact sheet also accompanied the letter to local users. Among explanations given were: a 10 percent penalty of the net amount of the billing is not charged unless the bills are paid late; delinquent water bills placed on local tax assessments are not a legal deduction on income tax returns; a charge of $10 is made for testing of a personal water meter, but if defective, no charge is made; broken or destroyed water meters found to be the fault of the customer will be repaired, but the customer pays for the repair; emergencies occurring before or after business hours (9 a.m. to 5 p.m.) can be reported by calling 941-0666 or 941-1111, Herman said.

As a convenience to water and sewer customers, Herman included a separate sheet detailing ways to conserve on water and sewer bills. His suggestions are:

1. Immediately repair or replace leaky faucets, pipes, or joints.
- a) 1-32" leak wastes 170 gallons of water in 24 hours.
- b) 1-16" leak wastes 600 gallons of water in 24 hours.

c) 1-8" leak wastes 2500 gallons of water in 24 hours.

2. Check the toilet for excessive flushing time.

3. If the meter develops a leak, call the water department immediately, and shut the valves off by the meter.

4. Make sure all faucets are shut off when you are through using them.

5. Don't water your grass or gardens during the hot part of the day, usually between 11 a.m. - 4 p.m. Water at a slow rate so the ground can absorb the water instead of letting it run off.

6. When washing dishes don't let the water run excessively long. Practice this with other wash jobs, too.

7. Taking a quick shower uses less water than the average bath.

8. Check your meter when you go to bed at night. Compare that reading to the morning reading. The dial should not have moved other than the tenths digit to compensate for the use of the bathroom or drinking of water.

9. An automatic ice maker, a power humidifier, an air conditioner run off water coolers — all these types of products use water without your control.

10. A suds-saver on your washer will save a certain amount of water for re-use.

11. A car that is waxed requires less water to wash.

12. Keeping a jug of water in the refrigerator will stop the running of the faucet for long periods of time to get cold water.

13. Remember: water and sewer utilities now require conservation, not only to save you money, but to protect the environment.

RC says: We need donors

The Red Cross is asking community residents to remember its continual need for blood during the holiday season.

Seek out a professional!

"It is a truism in the legal profession that the vast majority of widows lose a substantial part of an uncontrolled bequest within seven years." So states Ms. Theresa Morse in her book, "Life is for the Living." She points out that a team of experts (a lawyer, accountant, and investment counselor) can provide the professional advice that well-meaning friends and relatives simply cannot. All of us may need some or all of that team," Ms. Morse counsels a widow, especially, to seek out a lawyer with whom she can communicate frankly and comfortably. He must be "right" for her, and he and other counselors must earn her confidence and trust. Only through this trust can they help chart her short and long-range courses of action.

So, too, must we earn your trust. You should be comfortable discussing your funeral wishes with us. As with your lawyer, we conduct our affairs on a professional level. We want you to consider us as members of your "team," ready to help make pre-planned arrangements or provide information in advance of need.

An editorial opinion

Community support for the Goodfellows is urged

Who cares when a child goes to bed with an empty stomach?
Who cares when a little boy or girl gets up on Christmas morning and finds nothing but the same daily despair?

Who cares when a struggling mother or father must go without the basic necessities in order to provide a little Christmas joy for their children?
Of course we all do. We care but most of us are just too busy to help. Just providing for our own families is a full-time job and leaves little time for others.

That's understandable. But even so we must remember that we are also part of a larger family — our own community.
We have a larger responsibility than just seeing to it that our own is taken care of. That responsibility is to give to others not so fortunate, a part of that which we may have in excess.
There are people who really care and exemplify that caring by doing something about it.
We're talking about Goodfellows.
We thank them for standing in the cold offering their canisters to others and hoping some of the caring rubs off.
We thank them for staying at that meeting, even though they may have gotten home late and missed their children's damp good night kisses.

We thank them for being some of the busiest people in town, but still have time for one more job.
We thank them for giving others a part of their Christmas.
We thank them for bringing a little cheer into the hearts of others.
We thank them for changing a freckled-face frown into a smile.
We thank them for giving us something that no amount of money on earth could buy — themselves.
But most of all, we thank them for truly being Goodfellows.
Soon the Romulus and Sumpter Township Goodfellows will take to the street. We urge your support. They will be trying to bring Christmas to those less fortunate.

Bald Eagle Speaks

Liberation nonsense

By BOB AMEEN

The women's liberation movement, attended by frustration, jealousy and bitterness, is getting so out of hand that even its own members are fighting among themselves.
Through some means or other (I suspect extortion) they succeeded in convincing the federal government to allocate $5 million in taxpayers' money part of which they used to stage a three-ring carnival of a women's conference in Houston, Texas recently.
Without going into details (thank God!) about that get-together, suffice to say that the liberal and conservative wings of the women's movement engaged in debating upon such subjects as abortion, lesbian rights, the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) and other equally ridiculous topics.
In fact, according to reports received from the convention in Houston, the more liberal and radical factions actually controlled which subjects were discussed (their's) and manipulated the microphones on the convention floor so as to push their goals and stop those of the opposition.
Although many American women feel that their rights are spelled out and protected under existing federal and state laws, including the 14th Amendment to the Constitution, the more radical women activists are rushing to get the ERA ratified by the required minimum of 38 states.
Currently, 35 states have ratified the proposed amendment, but chances to get the three more needed are dimming before the 1979 deadline is reached. In fact, three of those states that voted to back the controversial law, now wish to rescind their earlier action.
From the male point of view, the publicity and gimmickry surrounding the ERA movement is hypocritical and unrealistic. When some of the same women, who are pushing hard for "equality" for their species under the law, are asked if they would serve in the foxholes with their male counterparts, they answer with a resounding "no!"
Anyone with the slightest amount of common sense knows that males are more suited for certain specific jobs than women and vice-versa. No man who is mature and educated will deny women the same rate of pay for the same job performed by a man.
But, as in all things since time immemorial, it takes time to overcome prejudice and tradition. The time again will come possibly when most women will again clamor for that pedestal upon which they were placed by males. Actually, many women who have taken up the banner of women's rights now are finding it not to their liking and yearn for their previous role in society.

One of the more ludicrous aspects of rights recently assumed by women — that of calling themselves Ms. instead of Miss or Mrs. — smacks of immaturity and jealousy. By wanting to over-emphasize their independency, they seem to be creating a third sex, not wanting to fall into the categories of Miss (an unmarried female) or Mrs. (married or who has been married female).
The jealousy part probably comes from women activists' frustration at wearing labels which they believe were given to them by men.
Most men pay absolutely no attention to this latest fad, for in their minds, women will always be Miss or Mrs. As with all fads, the movement will undoubtedly fade away.
As for the lesbian rights which women libbers are fighting for, again a little old common sense tells us that in America most citizens in almost all cases would not deprive someone of the rights to earn their livelihood because of what they do in their private lives.
The key word seems to be "private." What the majority of Americans cannot tolerate is the flaunting of homosexuality and lesbianism by its advocates. They also do not feel that gays, as they want to be called, should be in such jobs as teaching and child counseling, or in any capacity where they come in close contact with young children.
As for equality, since Biblical times, the patriarchal system, in which the man is the head of the household, has been held in universal acceptance throughout the civilized world. For a small group of one sex to want to tear it down for equality or gay rights, is hardly sufficient justification for such a revolutionary change.
God put men and women on earth to live together and love one another. Should some choose not to do so, even go so far as to live with and love members of their own sex, that is their private business. But, they should not attempt to impose their beliefs upon the rest of society.
Most of the hue and cry now being blasted into America's ears by women libbers and gay activists comes from a small percentage of the total population.
But, ala Richard Nixon (remember him, our ex-president), the "silent majority" exists as strongly in our female population as it does the entire populace, and it is they who will have the final say.
In this particular instance of women's rights, they will soon rise up and say "hogwash!"

Editor's Log

Why an 'X' rated Christmas

By DENNIS FASSETT
Managing Editor

Who took Christ out of Christmas?
For many years, since I first observed the use of Xmas as an abbreviation for Christmas, I have wondered about the Madison Avenue type that must certainly have been responsible for this innovation.
It is not in the least bit difficult for someone in the newspaper business to understand the motive for the wide-spread use of the abbreviated form, Christmas is a long word that is best not hyphenated, but still it somehow rings hollow to see Christ removed from the celebration of his own birthday.
Although 'X' is a recognized symbol for the word Christ, and several other words also, its use has been encouraged solely to make life more convenient for mankind. Color me strange, but I don't like it and never have.
Now it could be argued that the substitution of 'X' for Christ in Christmas, has saved the world thousands of gallons of paint, since the substitution reduces a nine character word to four, but what about the thousands of workers that have been deprived of their right to make a living by printing the complete word?

From the standpoint of creativity alone, the substitution makes little sense. Anyone can make an 'X', but it takes an artist to scroll a good looking 'Christmas.'
Walt Disney once said, "I removed one finger on each of Mickey Mouse's hands, and throughout his lifetime I saved thousands of dollars in paint." But Christ is not Mickey Mouse. Christ does not exist simply for the convenience of mankind.
In my years on this planet I have developed only a few very strong opinions. I don't like to see people sneak out of church before the services are over, I don't like corrupt politicians who have violated their public trust, I don't like people that will tell you only what they think you want to hear, and I don't like people that would abbreviate Christmas, as Xmas.

Mentally I have lumped all of the foregoing offenders into one pile. After all, it is easier to leave church early than to sit and listen to a message that may be directed at you, and it is easier for an elected official to think about himself first and corrupt his office, and it is easier for someone to tell you what they may think you want to hear because there is less chance of becoming involved in a serious discussion, and it is easier to print 'Xmas' rather than Christmas because of the five fewer characters. But only rarely is the easy way the best way, and never is it the best way relative to the examples listed.
I don't think that society will change, but then again, I probably won't either.
I'll take Christmas anytime.

Health Beat

A Doctor that happens to be female

By RUSS TUTTLE
Director, Community Relations
Peoples Community Hospital Authority

Yesterday I was having a cup of coffee in an area reserved for employees in the Annapolis Hospital emergency room. I was waiting to interview a new physician who works in the emergency service.
A man who had just been treated for a badly cut thumb came out of a treatment station and approached an attractive young lady dressed in a white lab coat which had a stethoscope protruding from one pocket.
"Nurse," he said, "where do I go with this paper work?"
She smiled, and politely, but firmly, said, "I'm Dr. Powers. The nurses' station is just outside the door."
Susan Powers, MD, was the new physician I was waiting to see, and she was soon to tell me that in the hospital setting she was often mistaken for a nurse.
"I'm sure that people who make such assumptions about women in a hospital are not being deliberately malicious. I think that such errors are clearly the product of societal conditioning — a conditioning which says that men are doctors and women are nurses.
"Let me hasten to add that there is nothing wrong with being a nurse. I work with these dedicated professionals daily, and indeed would be lost without them. My point is, I am a licensed physician, and prefer to be recognized as such."
Dr. Powers found her way to the Annapolis Hospital emergency room via a somewhat circuitous route.
She graduated from Carnegie-Mellon University in Pittsburgh with a BA in French, and began her career as a French teacher at MacMurray College in Jacksonville, Illinois.

It did not take her too long to recognize that college teaching, while an honorable profession, simply did not satisfy all of her needs.
She left Illinois and returned to Ohio — her home was in Montpelier — and entered the medical school at The Ohio State University.
She received her MD in 1976 and travelled to Ann Arbor to complete a residency in general surgery at The University of Michigan.
It is her current intention to be accepted in an ENT (ears, nose, throat) surgical residency. Until she finds an opening in a teaching hospital, Dr. Powers will continue to work in the emergency service at Annapolis hospital.
"I decided to enter medical school at a little later age than most people," she said, "because in truth I really can't say that I had always had an overwhelming desire to be a physician. But I have always had a desire to achieve, and where but in medicine can one achieve so much?"
She said that she enjoyed the art of medicine as much, if not more, than the pure science involved in the discipline.
"You must understand that a doctor can help effect a cure as much with her manner and approach to the patient as she can with the therapy and regimen she will prescribe and order.
The human body is a complicated system of interfaces between functions, and the condition or state of the psyche is as important as anything else."

I asked her about her life outside of the hospital. "I do not restrict myself, in my social life or other interests to associating only with other physicians. Certainly, because of my work, and the time which a physician must spend at that work, I am with my peers more than the average person. But I have not programmed my life to be one of professional-only associations."
She said that she hoped more young women would look at medicine as a career. "It's competitive. Lord knows how hard it is just to get admitted to medical school. And once you are in, the course work and clinical experience is demanding on your time. Still, the sense of accomplishment and the recognition that you will be prepared to help people who need specialized ministrations more than compensate for the efforts expended.
Additionally, and I hope this isn't misunderstood, a physician who happens to be a woman experiences financial security and professional freedom. She does not have to spend her life dependent on some one else to take care of her.
"Indeed, as a physician, I know I have more freedom than most women will ever experience."
Dr. Powers was called back to the treatment area to care for a man who was in respiratory distress. As you listened to her manage the situation, you knew that the patient was in capable hands.

From the State House

Taxes and tax assessment

The legislature this year has re-examined various tax and tax assessment laws and procedures, and taken action to change some of them.

The first bill signed into law this year was a priority item to correct an inequity in state income tax rules. It nullified a State Department of Treasury requirement that life, health and accident insurance premiums that are paid by employers be listed as "household income" when filing for property tax credits against the state income tax.

Those tax instructions were included on forms for the 1976 tax year. The legislation approved by the legislature enabled taxpayers to ignore those instructions. Persons who had already filed tax returns following the instructions were allowed to file amended returns.

The bill further excluded from "household income" money deducted from monthly Social Security or Railroad Retirement checks for medicare premiums, as well as the first $300 received from awards prizes, lottery, bingo or other winnings.

The House amended a bill on tax equalization to provide for what would amount to a three-year freeze on local property tax assessments and taxes, unless the voters agree to increase taxes.

The amendment would prohibit further equalization for three years, meaning the state equalization of property values, upon which taxes are based, would be unchanged for that period.

This would go into effect in 1979, when the bill itself would go into effect.

The amended bill would require that property be equalized either as residential, agricultural, commercial, industrial, developmental or timber cut-over. This is designed to eliminate inequities in the assessing system. At the present time, some types of property are overtaxed and some undertaxed.

The bill, including the tax freeze amendment, is under consideration in the Senate.

The developmental classification, which is new, is further detailed in another bill sent to the Senate. It would ease the tax pressure on persons who farm or own rural land near urban areas.

Developmental property would be agricultural land that is bought or sold on speculation, for possible use for subdivisions or commercial development. When this happens, it puts pressure on the valuation of nearby rural land since assessors are bound to consider sales of comparable land when making assessments. This can mean higher assessments and higher taxes for the adjacent rural land.

Developmental property would be agricultural land that is bought or sold on speculation, for possible use for subdivisions or commercial development. When this happens, it puts pressure on the valuation of nearby rural land since assessors are bound to consider sales of comparable land when making assessments. This can mean higher assessments and higher taxes for the adjacent rural land.

The developmental classification would enable assessors to treat land which is obviously intended for future residential or commercial uses differently than he does the adjoining farmland.

The bill defines developmental property as parcels containing more than five acres without buildings or more than 20 acres with buildings, whose value in potential sales exceeds its present value in actual use.

School taxes were considered by several bills, including the State School Aid Appropriations Bill for the next fiscal year.

The school aid bill approved by the legislature is designed to de-emphasize property taxes in school finance by separating a portion of the school aid guarantee from any consideration of high millage levels.

Over the past three years, school property taxes have been rising sharply statewide, at an average of 8 mills each year. For 1976-77, the increase was more than a full mill, the largest increase in any one year since the late 1960's.

The new state aid formula guarantees all districts at least $96 per pupil increase in total state-local revenue in 1978-79, without property tax increases. However, the legislation contains incentives for districts to lower their tax rates with no loss of revenue.

The old formula had the effect of using state funds, intentionally or otherwise, as an incentive for millage increases. The new formula makes a beginning toward reversing this principle by using state funds to reward millage decreases.

The legislature approved two other bills which allow school districts to hold special millage elections up to or on the second Tuesday in November this year and collect, with the 1977 taxes, tax increases approved in those elections. Under current law, school districts would not be able to collect a tax increase for this year if a millage election was held after September 15. Rather, they would have to wait until the 1978 tax collections.

Also approved by the legislature was a bill which allows intermediate school districts to certify and collect property taxes through city and township treasurers twice a year, as can be done by regular school districts.

The house approved and sent to the senate a bill designed to encourage more local units of government to take advantage of the plant rehabilitation and industrial development act, which permits local property or income tax exemptions for industrial plants which are built, replaced or restored in a city.

Under present law, the exemptions must be for 12 years. However, some cities, while wanting to encourage industrial development, do not want to forego taxes for as long as 12 years. The bill would allow them to issue the exemption for any length of time, as long as it did not exceed 12 years.

Last leaf's lament

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

It looks like I'll be the last to go. All around me is loneliness. I'm hanging by the slightest thread, fluttering in circles waiting for the end to come.

All summer long I was crushed among the crowd and ignored. Those more beautiful or colorful than I were plucked and admired, held up for appreciation—but I was hidden as faceless in the throng.

Time has moved silently on. Summer's warmth has long since gone and the cool end of autumn is nigh.

Answering the inevitable death knell of fall, my friends have fallen to the depths of despair and faded away. The glow of youth has left their faces and now their sunken, hollow cheeks are pale brown in death.

Looking down into their bland faces, I'm thankful for what I have to cling to.

Age has crept over me, too, as I cling to the last vestige of life. My home is bare—left forsaken by the departure of my friends and family. Even the autumn winds have turned cool toward me.

My few remaining friends wave from across the street. A fond farewell to a glorious golden summer.

It's late fall now and I am the last to go. My wrinkled skin is brown with age. I was green on the job at first, but experience and the sun has tanned me to my present drabness...and I feel I'm losing my grip.

Please don't shed tears when I pass on. If my passing beauty has brightened someone's life, then my living has not been in vain.

I hear the drum roll of death. The piper is playing and I feel the cool wind carrying me to my destiny. As I flutter to the ground I'm not sad—for I know I've accomplished my purpose in life.

And though I'll be raked and burned with those who've gone on before, even then some chilled soul may be warmed by my fire.

got safely home. I will not feed your neurosis."

"And mother, will you cut out calling all of my friends when I'm not home when you think I should be?" one of my sons asked.

"I only do that when it's getting on towards morning," I told him. "After all, you never can tell what might have happened. You might have been in a wreck, or someone might have conked you on the head, or..."

"Mother, I am a man, now I can take care of myself. You don't have to watch out for me..."

"I don't understand, I whimpered putting down my crocheting. "I don't of my boys said. "What did you say to me "Oh mother, you do," they all chorused. "Think back to Thanksgiving day," one of my boys said. "What did you say to me when I sat down at the table?"

"I don't know," I said.

"You said, 'Did you wash your hands?'"

"Well, did you?" I asked. "You never remember to wash your hands."

"Mother, I'm twenty-five years old."

"The more reason you should remember to wash your hands," I told him.

"Mother, look at us," they said. "We are all grown up."

I looked up from my apron and sure enough those little, tow-headed kids sitting around the fire were but a figment of my imagination. Sitting before me were grown men and women; strangers who seemed to know me well enough to take liberties in my living room, but strangers I had never seen before.

Slowly I untied my apron strings. "You're right," I said to them. "No more mothering."

After they left, I sat looking into the fire and as it crackled away I took my apron and threw it into the flames.

"What are you doing?" my love asked as he came into the room.

"Oh, just watching my apron strings burn," I told him. "And do you know it takes more time for that thing to burn than it took for our kids to grow up?"

That's when he put his arms around me. "Do you know something?" he asked. "I like you better without your apron."

As I See It

The 'Great Cosmic Boom'

By CHARLES L. GOULD

I was five. A tired, tearful, frightened five.

My sister, who was eight, and my brother, not yet three, and I were alone with our father for the first time since we returned from the cemetery.

A powerful giant of a man, Dad had a voice that was resonant, strong and forceful. Now, though, it was caressingly gentle and quietly comforting.

Taking a large book from a shelf in the library, he drew us to him as he sank in the large leather chair Mother had given him at Christmas just a few months earlier.

As we held him tightly, he one-by-one kissed our tears away. Even now, I can feel the reassuring strength of his powerful arms. I can still, in memory, catch the subtle scent of tobacco that came from his occasional cigar. It was a good feeling. And a good smell.

We sat in silence for what seemed an eternity. It could have been all of two minutes. Then, Dad quietly poured out his heart. And his faith.

He said it was right and proper for us to weep for our Mother. For we would miss her as surely as she would miss us.

He said, however, that our tears should be touched with a special kind of happiness. The kind of happiness that comes from knowing that our beautiful Mother would never again know pain. Would never again be tired. Would never grow old.

Dad told us that dying is part of living. "Everything we do on earth is merely preparation for that great adventure". It is one, he said, that brings, all who know it, comfort and happiness for ever more.

As he talked, he opened the large book and said, "It's all here in God's book. The story of life, the story of love, the story of prayer, the story of His promises."

Dad told how God said we must die to live again. To illustrate the point, he reminded us of the dry and withered seeds Mother had taken from a dead flower. Months ago, she had planted them in a row of pots in the library. Now, they were in full flower. They had been born again.

The Bible, Dad said is eternal. It goes on forever and our lives must be part of it.

Then, as we watched, he opened the great book to a page of records. Reaching for the pen and ink-well, always near his chair, he inscribed the sad, last facts on the mortal life and death of Kathleen Murphy Gould.

Ten years later, during the Scopes (Monkey-evolution) trial, one of my teachers raised questions about God, the Bible and the creation of the universe.

She said, "Scientists are now convinced our world was created in a great cosmic blast billions of years ago."

It would be wrong to say my faith was shaken. However, the remarks of my teacher together with newspaper headlines reporting on the oratory of Clarence Darrow in the Scopes trial did raise questions in my mind.

That evening, I told Dad of my concerns. He put his arm around me and we walked out into the cool night air. The sky was a black canopy sprinkled with a million diamonds. In the clean and cloudless sky, some of the stars seemed close enough to touch.

Dad looked at the heavens for a moment and then said, "perhaps the scientists are right. Perhaps our universe was formed in a gigantic blast. But, I know who made the big bang."

He continued. "The Bible, in the first verse of Genesis says, in the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. It was God who made the big blast. It was God who put order in the universe."

Looking to the heavens, Dad said, "There are a billion stars in the limitless distances of space. Our earth is one of the smallest. All of these stars are racing through a black void at thousands of miles an hour. If any single star should vary its course or speed, our skies could become a blazing inferno."

"Should our sun move closer to earth or farther away, our world could vanish in a fiery explosion or become a barren, frozen, lifeless waste-land. Only a well-ordered plan could insure against such a catastrophe."

"The Bible tells us that the universe is the handiwork of God. The Bible tells us that God created every living thing on earth. Scientists can, of course, do great and good things, but if we utilized the best brains of all the scientists in all the races of man, they could not construct a single cell of a single living thing."

"Only God can make a flower, a tree, a bird, a canopy of stars...or a son. I believe in the Bible."

So do I.

'We the People' still speak

To the Editor:

For the past 8 or 9 months the citizens of Romulus have been subjected to, and have been involved in, the most basic element of our country's Democratic System, the choosing of our leaders.

Admittedly, they were divided in their philosophies about what our city needed, but regardless of which candidates they supported, the one element they all shared was they had an interest in their community and they were involved. I, for one, think they should be commended for that involvement.

But now we are in danger of losing that precious ingredient of our Democratic System, Citizen Involvement. Now we must come together for our common goal, the betterment of Romulus. There is much to be done and we are the ones who have to do it.

Our 10 elected officials can't do it without us, they need our help. Stay involved, find a way to help uplift our city to its rightful place, a place where people can hold their heads high and proudly proclaim, "I'm from Romulus."

There is, in our community, a small group of people who have banded together with one common purpose, "the betterment of Romulus." The name of the group is "We the People" and they need our help, they need our involvement.

"We the People" is currently looking into a number of possible projects worthy of citizen involvement. Among these are: building a post office in Romulus, renaming the airport to "Romulus International Airport," changing Wayne County's tax exempt status at the airport, a city-wide beautification program, updating the town proper of Romulus, and many others.

We must all stay involved, we must all combine our efforts to improve Romulus. Let's all go to the next meeting of "We the People," on January 26, 1978, and make our voices heard.

I remain, an involved citizen, and
Gil White Jr.—Member

'Common Sense' simplifies HEW regulation

Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District) has given his local school officials an unique opportunity to make their views heard at the top level of the federal government.

Congressman Ford, a ranking member of the House Education and Labor Committee, had been asked for recommendations on simplifying the administration of federal education programs. The request came from Joseph A. Califano Jr., Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, and Ernest Boyer, U.S. Commissioner of Education.

The information was needed as part of the department's new "Operation Common Sense," an effort to simplify HEW's massive accumulation of administrative rules and regulations.

Congressman Ford asked officials in each of Wayne County's 36 school districts to give him suggestions on the operation of such programs as the Elementary Education Act, Head Start, Education of the Handicapped, and Bilingual Education.

Their recommendations, along with Congressman Ford's own thoughts, were forwarded this week to Secretary Califano and Commissioner Boyer.

"The local officials' ideas, and mine, boil down to several common sense suggestions," Congressman Ford said. "We want to emphasize Congressional intent in establishing education priorities, we want regulations to be practical, and we want applications from various areas to be judged more uniformly to assure fairness."

Congressman Ford expressed his appreciation to Secretary Califano and Commissioner Boyer for their commitment to reducing unnecessary regulation and intrusion by the federal government.

"Their efforts to cut back on 'red tape' demonstrate President Carter's sincerity in his pledge to make the federal government less complicated and more responsive," Congressman Ford added.

CITY OF ROMULUS NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that a Public Hearing will be held Tuesday, December 6, 1977, at 7:00 p.m., in the Romulus City Council Chambers, 11111 Wayne Road, Romulus, Michigan for the purpose of hearing testimony for or against the approval of the establishment of an Industrial Development District for Highland Industrial Development Company.

RESOLUTION 77-646

WHEREAS: Act No. 198 of the Public Acts of 1974 is designed to provide a stimulus in the form of significant tax incentives to industry to renovate and/or expand aging plants and to build new plants in Michigan; and WHEREAS: Under the provisions of the Act, a local governmental unit in which the total property tax levy is at least thirty (30) mills may establish property tax incentives to attract new plants to the area; and WHEREAS: Said Act provides that a firm may apply for and be issued an Industrial Facilities Exemption Certificate which entitles the facility to exemption from ad valorem real and personal property taxes for a period of twelve (12) years. In lieu of the property tax, the firm will pay a specific tax known as the Industrial Facility Tax. The Industrial Facility Tax for a new plant in an industrial development district is determined by the ad valorem property tax levied by the municipality instead, however, of using the total mills levied, only half the millage rate is applied; and

WHEREAS: Said Act provides that seventy-five (75 percent) percent of the owners of property to be affected by any proposed industrial development district may apply to the local governmental unit for the establishment of an industrial development district; and WHEREAS: Highland Construction Company, did on October 25, 1977 submit a request to the City of Romulus to establish an industrial development district, its description as follows:

The South 323.24 feet of Lots 7 to 17 inclusive, of the B & B Subdivision of part of the North 1/2 of the Northwest 1/4 of Section 13, Town 3 South, Range 9 East, according to the plat thereof as recorded in Liber 68, Page 7 of plats, Wayne County Records.

ALSO A parcel of land in Section 13, Town 3 South, Range 9 East, described as: Beginning at a point on the West line of said Section 13 distant South 0 degrees 03 minutes 40 seconds East 665.07 feet from the Northwest corner of said Section 13; thence North 89 degrees 41 minutes 20 seconds East 1314.35 feet; thence South 0 degrees 06 minutes 00 seconds West 820.94 feet; thence South 89 degrees 48 minutes 30 seconds West 689.68 feet to a point. Thence South 0 degrees 07 minutes 00 seconds West parallel to Easterly line of said premises, a distance 161.62 feet to a point; thence South 89 degrees 48 minutes 30 seconds West to a point or the Westerly line of said Section 13; thence North 0 degrees 03 minutes 40 seconds West along the West line to point of beginning.

ALSO A parcel of land in the South 3/4 of the Northeast 1/4 of the Northwest 1/4 of Section 13, Town 3 South, Range 9 East, Romulus Township (now City of Romulus), Wayne County, Michigan; described as commencing at the North 1/4 corner of said Section 13; thence S. 00 degrees 03'40" W. 346.04 ft. along the N. & S. 1/4 line; thence S. 89 degrees 34'00" W. 43.00 ft. to the point of beginning; thence S. 00 degrees 03'40" W. 992.89 ft. along the Westerly line of Harrison Rd. (86 ft. wd.); thence S. 89 degrees 40'10" W. 1270.74 ft.; thence N. 00 degrees 07'47" E. 990.77 ft.; thence N. 89 degrees 34'24" E. 1269.57 ft. along the Southerly line of "B & B Sub" (Recorded in Liber 68, Plats, Page 7 W.C.R.) to the Point of Beginning. Containing 28.920 acres. Subject to any incumbrance as may be disclosed by title search.

and, WHEREAS: The Highland Construction Company represents more than seventy-five (75%) percent of the property owners to be included in the aforementioned district as required by the provisions of the Public Act 198; and

WHEREAS: Public Act 198 requires that a public hearing be held to hear any objections to and all reasons for the establishment of such an industrial development district when a request is received by the local municipality for the establishment of such a district; and

WHEREAS: City Council of the City of Romulus is cognizant of the critical employment situation existing within its corporate limits compounded by an equally critical employment situation in the State and indeed the country; and

WHEREAS: The establishment of the requested industrial development district would go far to encourage the Highland Construction Company to continue with additional projects on this site resulting in additional jobs for the citizens of the City of Romulus, as well as, a substantial increase to the City's tax base.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the City Council of the City of Romulus hold a Public Hearing on December 6, 1977, at 7:00 p.m. in the Romulus City Council Chambers, 11111 Wayne Road, Romulus, Michigan, to take testimony from any and all parties having objections to the establishment of the requested industrial development district and to take testimony from any and all parties having reason to support the establishment of the requested industrial development district.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That copies of this resolution be forwarded to all property owners within the proposed boundaries of said industrial development district, to all units of government currently levying ad valorem tax on property included in the proposed industrial development district, and that a copy of this resolution together with a notice of public hearing be published at least once in the official newspaper of the City of Romulus not less than five (5) days proceeding the hearing.

I, Leonard J. Folmar, Clerk for the City of Romulus, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of a resolution adopted by the Romulus City Council at its regular meeting held on the 25th day of October, 1977.

The Rotating Pulpit

'New Birth' is Bible subject

Much is said today about born-again Christians. It is true that "The New Birth" is a Bible subject. "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except one be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." This is the instruction Jesus gave to Nicodemus in John Chapter 3, Verses 3 through 5.

Man is endowed with the powers of election. He is a free agent. Those who believe in Jesus Christ are given the power to become children of God. (John 1:12). Therefore, conversion is not a miracle. As the physical birth results from the outworking of the natural laws of procreation, just so, the spiritual birth is due to the outworking of the scriptural laws of procreation.

The plain fact Jesus set forth is that without the new birth no one can see the kingdom of God. The new birth introduces one into the kingdom. Please keep that statement in mind. Jesus said in verse seven of John chapter three that one must be born again or born anew.

God is our spiritual father. Hear John: "Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is begotten of God." (1 John 5:1) Life is propagated by seed, and Jesus said the word of God is the seed of the kingdom. (Lk. 8:11). Everyone knows that corn seed produces corn and wheat seed produces wheat. God's word produces Christians.

According to Luke Chapter 8, the seed (word of God) is sown by teachers and preachers of the gospel and it is received by the heart—the intellect of man. The seed comes from our only spiritual father—God and is recorded for us in the Bible.

The new birth is singular and not dual. It is not two births but one. Some have contended that to be born of the water is the experience of a physical birth. But such cannot be true. Jesus said "Ye must be born anew. Those who must be born of the water and the Spirit have already been born physically. The birth Jesus is talking about is one birth in which both the element of water and the person of the Spirit enter—making it a single birth.

It cannot be denied that the new birth is a birth of water and the Spirit. By the instruction of the Spirit one is baptized in the water (John 3:5). It is the washing of regeneration and the renewal of the Spirit referred to by Paul in Titus 3:5. It is simply water baptism which brings one into Christ (Gal.

3:27). One is baptized to walk in newness of life. (Rom. 6:4). Paul said: "If any man be in Christ he is a new creature (2 Cor. 5:17)." What do we have here?

(1) One in Christ is a new creature.

(2) One gets into Christ by being baptized into Him. (Gal. 3:27)

(3) One is led by the instruction of the Spirit—through the word of God (Luke 8)—to be baptized in water.

(4) He comes up out of the water to walk in newness of life. (Rom. 6:4)

This is in perfect harmony with every example of conversion we have record of in the book of Acts. The people on the day of Pentecost were told to "repent and be baptized...For the remission of sins" (Acts 2:38)...Saul was told to "arise and be baptized, washing away thy sins" (Acts 22:16). When a person has his sins remitted or forgiven—or putting it another way—when one is born again, there is a difference in his way of living. He is walking in newness of life.

Frost-bitten convention recalls border controversy

NOTE: In a few weeks it will be the 141st anniversary of the "Frost-Bitten Convention", and Barbara Wood of the Historical Society of Michigan takes a look at the dispute involving the Toledo strip.

By BARBARA WOOD

It seems that Michiganders and Ohioans have been fussin' and fightin' with each other for a long time. These days the dispute usually involves football, but the 141st anniversary of the Frost-Bitten Convention recalls another controversy — the boundary between the two states, involving that area known as the Toledo strip. As is so often the case these days, the enticement of federal money and appointments were the deciding factors in accepting a compromise boundary proposal at the "Frost-Bitten Convention", held in Ann Arbor on Dec. 14, 1836. According to Frank C. Wilhelm, director of the Historical Society of Michigan, this was the turning point in Michigan's three-year quest for statehood. Elected delegates first met at a convention in Ann Arbor in September 1836 to decide whether to give the Toledo strip to Ohio in exchange for the western three-quarters of the Upper Peninsula. Statehood accompanied a yes vote; more political hassles would ensue, if the convention voted no. Upon learning of the convention's decision, one of the most disappointed persons was Stevens T. Mason, acting governor of the Michigan Territory. He had pursued statehood for Michigan from every angle, finally even heading the territorial militia to counter aggressive moves by Ohio's Gov. Robert Lucas. It is surprising that no one was killed in the clashes between the two sides. The only casualty turned out to be a Michigan sheriff stabbed with a jackknife in a tavern scuffle by "Two" Stickney, the second son of an ardent Buckeye. Hardly had the convention adjourned than second thoughts shed some doubt on the wisdom of the decision. After all, what was to be gained by rejecting the Congressional deal? Ohio, which now had complete control of the disputed territory, would never give it up. If Michigan were a state, it would receive five percent of the proceeds from the sales of public lands in Michigan and it would be in line to share in the distribution of the surplus from U.S. Treasury money. Gov. Mason refused to call a second convention, but said the people "in their original capacity" had the right to reverse the decision. Wayne County Democrats, followed by those from Washtenaw County, met and decided in favor of a second "convention of assent". A Committee of the People was formed calling for delegates to meet in Ann Arbor, Dec. 14, 1836. The Whigs refused to participate on the grounds that the whole proceeding was illegal. In the end, representatives from 18 counties took two days to draw up and pass a resolution accepting the compromise boundary proposal. All but 10 of the 72 delegates who attended signed the resolution. Its opponents dubbed the meeting the "Frost-Bitten Convention". When the resolution of assent reached President Jackson, he sent it to Congress and a bill to admit Michigan into the Union was presented. Senators debated over the propriety of the Frost-Bitten Convention for several days, but the bill was finally passed.

Romulus Kiwanians installs 1977-78 slate of officers

The Romulus Kiwanis Club has installed its new slate of officers for the 1977-78 club year.

The Nov. 3 installation was performed by Davis Draper.

Installed as Kiwanis president was Lnnng Coleman. Andy Lapota is president-elect, Gervazio Canejo, vice-president, Dave Ferdon, secretary and Art Mapes as treasurer.

The inauguration, attended by the Kiwanians' wives, featured a review of the past year's fund-raising activities and donations to charities and other groups. President Coleman also set the club's goals for the year.

Perfect attendance awards also were presented to Simon Binder, Gerry Canejo, Fred Hay, Hazen Hay, Tom Janack and Andy Lapota.

The Kiwanis' annual fall pancake festival has been sidelined, and three alternate fund raisers have been set up. Kiwanians are selling fruitcakes, placing gum vending machines in Romulus businesses and promoting a New Year's Eve party at the Romulus Progressive Club.

That party will be open to all citizens with advance reservations.

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

PUBLIC HEARING IS SCHEDULED FOR:

December 8, 1977, at 7:00 P.M. at 46425 Tyler Road, Belleville, Michigan To receive public comments, questions, and recommendations regarding the level of Belleville Lake as it pertains to the various items in the following Lake Level Committee Report as presented to the Board of Trustees at its September 27, 1977 meeting:

LAKE LEVEL COMMITTEE REPORT

The conclusion of the committee is that we agree that the lake should be left up during the winter season to the normal summer level for the following reasons:

A. Extensive damage to the seawalls on Belleville Lake has evidently been caused by the lowering of the lake during the last several years. When the water level is below the base of the seawall, a chewing action from high winds and waves occurs causing the erosion of the front soil support and ultimately the bottom of the seawall kicks out.

B. Bank erosion on Belleville Lake is caused by several factors: At the lower level the wave action chews away at the exposed soil. This exposed soil will shift downward and wash into the lake.

C. The lake is becoming progressively shallower because the Huron River as well as all creeks empty their beds of silt into the lake each time it is lowered. In time sections will become swamps and the lake will lose its storage capacity and its ability to control floods will be adversely affected.

However, the lake should be lowered this year, hopefully, for the last time, and it should be lowered no later than October 15. This earlier October date would enable residents to improve and repair their lakefront facilities in good weather. After November 15 the weather is too unpredictable. We recommend the Township make a special effort to publicize this earlier date so that residents may take advantage of this opportunity.

D. The dimensions of this "Water Level" problem at Belleville Lake are beyond the investigative resources of this committee. It seems, as well, that none of the special agencies with which we have been in contact can offer any direct assistance. This committee therefore recommends that the Township Board consider initiating court action to establish a legal lake level through the Inland Lake Level Act of 1961, Act 146, as amended.

In taking our lake level dilemma to the courts, one of the benefits we may derive is to make the legislature more aware of the plight of the Van Buren residents. We have the most severe liabilities as holding pond for the watershed and no one shares the cost.

This report was prepared by and agreed to by all members present at the Lake Level Meeting held Thursday, September 22, 1977, namely: Peter Doyle, Cindy Taubitz, Barbara Rogalle, David Wertz, James Elias and Edward Ryznar. Two members were absent: Landon Garrett and Milton Riggs.

CITY OF ROMULUS NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that a Public Hearing will be held Tuesday, December 6, 1977, at 7:30 p.m., in the Romulus City Council Chambers, 11111 Wayne Road, Romulus, Michigan for the purpose of hearing testimony for or against the approval of the establishment of an Industrial Development District for Haven Industries, Inc.

RESOLUTION 77-647

WHEREAS, Act No. 198 of the Public Acts of 1974 is designed to provide a stimulus in the form of significant tax incentives to industry to renovate and/or expand aging plants and to build new plants in Michigan; and

WHEREAS, Under the provisions of the Act, a local governmental unit in which the total property tax levy is at least thirty (30) mills may establish property tax incentives to attract new plants to the area; and

WHEREAS, Said Act provides that a firm may apply for and be issued an Industrial Facilities Exemption Certificate which entitles the facility to exemption from ad valorem real and personal property taxes for a period of twelve (12) years. In lieu of the property tax, the firm will pay a specific tax known as the Industrial Facility Tax. The Industrial Facility Tax for a new plant in an industrial development district is determined by the ad valorem property tax levied by the municipality instead, however, of using the total mills levied, only half the millage rate is applied; and

WHEREAS, Said Act provides that seventy-five (75 percent) percent of the owners of property to be affected by any proposed industrial development district may apply to the local governmental unit for the establishment of an industrial development district; and

WHEREAS, Haven Industries, Inc., did on October 25, 1977, submit a request to the City of Romulus to establish an industrial development district, its description as follows:

25C23 24A1A
Lot 23 and W 100 ft of Lot 24 Scherers Victory Gardens Sub T3S
R9E L69 P58 WCR

and, WHEREAS, The Haven Industries, Inc. represent more than seventy-five (75 percent) percent of the property owners to be included in the aforementioned district as required by the provisions of Public Act 198; and WHEREAS, City Council of the City of Romulus is cognizant of the critical employment situation existing within its corporate limits compounded by an equally critical employment situation in the State and indeed the country; and

WHEREAS, The establishment of the requested industrial development district would go far to encourage the Haven Industries, Inc. to continue with additional projects on this site resulting in thousands of additional jobs for the citizens of the City of Romulus, as well as, a substantial increase to the City's tax base.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the City Council of the City of Romulus hold a Public Hearing on December 6, 1977, at 7:30 p.m. in the Romulus City Council Chambers, 11111 Wayne Road, Romulus, Michigan, to take testimony from any and all parties having objections to the establishment of the requested industrial development district and to take testimony from and all parties having reason to support the establishment of the requested industrial development district.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That copies of this resolution be forwarded to all property owners within the proposed boundaries of said industrial development district, to all units of government currently levying ad valorem tax on property included in the proposed industrial development district, and that a copy of this resolution together with a notice of public hearing be published at least once in the official newspaper of the City of Romulus not less than five (5) days proceeding said hearing.

I, Leonard J. Folmar, Clerk for the City of Romulus, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of a resolution adopted by the Romulus City Council at its regular meeting held on the 25th day of October, 1977.

MR. AND MRS. BRIAN BEATY

Brian Beaty, Pat Woznicki married in Trenton church

The First Baptist Church in Trenton was the setting Oct. 22 for the evening ceremony which united Patricia Woznicki of Trenton and Brian Beaty of Belleville in holy matrimony.

The Rev. James W. Jones presided at the six o'clock rite before some 160 relatives and friends who witnessed the exchange of vows and wedding bands.

Floral arrangements on the altar included yellow daisy mums and peach starflowers along with tall candelabras. Piano selections were played by the bride's sister, Mrs. Joan Colshin, and soloist Mark Hurst sang "Til There Was You" to guitar accompaniment.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Woznicki of 3127 Norwood Dr., Trenton, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her toe-touching gown of French organza was designed with a deep sweetheart neckline enhanced with a modified Queen Ann collar. Fashioned with full clear sleeves accented with embroidered appliques, the dress drifted into a circular train.

A little Juliet cap of embroidered appliques held the bride's cathedral-length silk illusion veil and a cluster bouquet of white silk lilies, fresh miniature peach carnations, white carnations, daisy mums and baby's breath completed her ensemble.

Kate Doerfler of Trenton was chosen to be maid of honor. Her peach gown dress featured puffed elbow-length sleeves and a standup collar. She wore a white silk lily in her hair and carried a bouquet of white silk lilies, fresh peach carnations, daisy mums and baby's breath.

Preceding the bride up the aisle in indistinguishably styled rust-colored outfits were the quartet of bridesmaids: Mrs. Kathy Lawson of Owatonna, Minn., and Carol Woznicki of Trenton, both sisters of the bride; and Sandy Pritchett and Leslie Nagy, both of Trenton.

Four-year old Julie Ann Chasey and her 7-year-old brother, Gordon, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Groce of Castile, N.Y., carried out the roles of flowergirl and ringbearer, respectively. Julie's long peach frock was trimmed with white lace and the little nosegay she held was comprised of miniature white roses and daisy mums. Her headpiece was made of matching blooms.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Beaty of 49905 Bog Rd., Belleville, the bridegroom asked Eric Pawelak of Ypsilanti to serve as his best man. Others on the esquire side were Robert Beaty of Belleville and Mark Hurst of Chelsea, brother and brother-in-law of the bridegroom; and Steven Wegebauer and Jim Poitevin, both of Belleville.

At the reception, which followed at Thomas' Epicurean House in Trenton, the bride's mother greeted guests in a long beige gown to which she pinned her corsage of coral roses. A similar corsage in yellow was presented to the bridegroom's mother who donned a pale blue formal gown for the occasion.

Since returning from a 5-day honeymoon in Northern Michigan, the newlyweds have been residing at 375 Rustic Lane, Belleville.

The new Mrs. Beaty graduated from Trenton High School and attended Henry Ford Community College. Both she and her husband, a Lincoln High School alumnus, are employed at the Ford Parts Redistribution Center in Brownstown.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents at their home on Bog Road.

At Moross House

Huron Valley Garden Club to enter Christmas Show

Members of the Huron Valley Garden Club are busily preparing for a Christmas show at the Detroit Garden Center at Moross House, 1460 E. Jefferson Avenue, on December 3 and 4. Sponsored by the Southeastern Area Down River Clubs of the Michigan Federation of Garden Clubs, the show will be open to the public on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on Sunday from noon until 4 p.m.

The Moross House, one of the oldest brick homes in the city of Detroit, will be decorated in a Christmas theme. Hostesses for the occasion are Mrs. Jack Kulzer, Mrs. Timothy Posthumus, Mrs. George Wilson; Mrs. W. E. Gault, all of Belleville, and Mrs. Walter Molik and Mrs. William Romsdahl of Ypsilanti.

Tree decorations will be entered by Mrs. Kulzer, Mrs. Molik, Mrs. Gault and Mrs. William Hermann. Under the trees are Christmas packages for the man of the house by Mrs. Romsdahl and Mrs. Molik.

Pressed flowers arranged in a lovely 18th century wooden frame for a Christmas sampler will be exhibited by Mrs. Posthumus. Artistic wreaths featuring many spices and herbs are the offerings of Mrs. Molik and Mrs. Joseph Horste. A hearth arrangement employing twigs of fragrant materials such as tansy and lemon verbena has been entered by Mrs. Molik.

In the horticultural exhibit, there will be a double Blue Boy Violet from Mrs. Reginald Atyeo; a succulent, aloe Vera from Mrs. Thomas Russell; a dish garden by Mrs. Molik; potted herbs from Mrs. William Herman; a fern from Mrs. Molik and a begonia from Mrs. Frank Prais.

On business, photography

Washtenaw CC offering two interesting workshops

The Ypsilanti Center of Washtenaw Community College will present a workshop on How To Start Your Own Business...And Make Money. Robert R. Thompson, J.D., will instruct.

This course presents personal, business, legal and financial fundamentals so that you can successfully start your own business. In the seminar course you will learn: how to make sound business decisions; how to choose the legal form of business organization, how to prepare a business plan, how to identify and evaluate business success factors, how to prepare budgets and cash projections and how to deal with banks.

The seminar will be held at WCC's main campus, located at 4800 East Huron River Drive, Ann Arbor, Lecture Hall I, ESB on Friday, Dec. 2, from 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, Dec. 3, from 9 to 5 p.m. OR another complete seminar on Friday, Dec. 9 from 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, Dec. 10, from 9 to 5 p.m.

The fee is $25 with senior citizens admitted free. Advanced registrations are requested by calling 482-2230.

A photo workshop will be held at the Ypsilanti Center of Washtenaw Community College. Thomas Clough, WCC photography instructor, will conduct the session.

There will be emphasis on picture taking, composition, lighting and types of film. (No darkroom work will be included.)

The workshop will be held at the Center, 214 North Huron Street, on Saturday, Dec. 3, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The fee is $10 with senior citizens admitted free.

Advance registrations are requested. They may be made by calling 482-2230.

BPW plans Christmas program

"The true meaning of Christmas" will be expressed by Mary Hoff who will highlight the Dec. 5 meeting of the Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW). The timely inspirational message is part of the evening planned by the club's finance committee. Christmas music will also be part of the program.

Members will meet at Faith United Methodist Church in Denton where dinner will be served by the United Methodist Women (UMW) promptly at 6:30 p.m.

Guests are welcome to attend both the dinner and program or just the program. Members as well as guests are asked to please call 699-5030 by Dec. 1 for a reservation.

Those wishing to come only for the program should be at the church by 7:30 p.m.

Quotes worth quoting ...

"Being a woman is a terribly difficult trade, since it consists principally of dealing with men."

Joseph Conrad said it.

- 2 cups (8 oz.) shredded cheddar cheese
- 1/2 cup crumbled blue cheese
- 2 teaspoons grated onion
- 1/2 cup chopped, salted peanuts

Combine softened cream cheese, cheddar and blue cheese; mix until well blended. Stir in onion. Chill. Shape into ball; roll in peanuts. Serve with assorted crackers.

Appetizer Log

- 2 3-oz pkgs. cream cheese
- 1 4-1/2 oz. can deviled ham
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- 2 cups (8 oz.) shredded cheddar cheese
- 2 tablespoons chopped chives
- 1/2 cup chopped, salted peanuts

Combine softened cream cheese, ham and mustard; mix until well blended. Stir in cheddar cheese and chives. Chill. Shape into log. Roll in peanuts. Serve with assorted crackers.

Nutty Swiss Cheese Spread

- 2 cups (8 oz.) shredded Swiss cheese
- 1/2 cup peanut butter
- 1/2 cup dairy sour cream
- 1/2 cup raisins

Combine ingredients; mix well. Spread on crackers, celery sticks or bread, as desired. Makes about 2 1/4 cups.

Double ring rite followed by honeymoon in Smokies

The Smoky Mountains and Gatlinburg, Tenn. were on the honeymoon itinerary of the newly wed Robert E. Zaborowski following their recent marriage at the home of the bridegroom's parents on Lake Point Pass, Belleville.

Laura B. Cash, the daughter of Mrs. Nancy R. Cash of 176 West Columbia Ave., Belleville, became Mrs. Zaborowski at a six o'clock ceremony Oct. 29 conducted by The Rev. Robert MacDonald.

Some 50 close friends and relatives gathered for the double ring ceremony at which Barbara Gielinski played "A Time for Us."

Presented in marriage by her mother, the bride appeared in a white gown of tiered bridal chiffon over organdy designed with a flowing chapel train. The little high rise bodice was styled with a scooped neckline and full sheer sleeves which ended in ruffles over pearl covered cuffs.

Her silk illusion veil, cut in three-quarter length, was caught to a Juliet cap embellished with seed pearls. A circular bouquet of white roses and baby's breath tied with white satin streamers completed her bridal finery.

Mrs. Orren M. Walters came from Ft. Walton Beach, Fla. to serve as her sister's honor attendant. Her mint green gown in the empire mode was fashioned with a hoop skirt of layered chiffon over organdy with lace trim on the bodice. Completing her ensemble were a matching picture hat accented with a veil and a bouquet of green pomp mums.

Two flowergirls also were part of the bridal cortege. The daughters of Mrs. Pamela Marshall, 8-year-old Rebecca and 6-year-old Angela, donned miniature versions of the honor attendant's frock in peach and yellow, respectively. The baskets they carried were filled with pomp mums and baby's breath.

Matthew Novack, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Novack, carried out the duties of ringbearer.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zaborowski of 12815 Lake Point Pass, Belleville, asked Dr. J. Christopher Lorentson of Grand Rapids to be best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cash chose a long gown of cranberry piana. The bridegroom's mother donned a peach chiffon gown. Both were honored with corsages of white cymbidium orchids.

Following their marriage the young couple was feted at a reception for some 160 guests at the PNA Hall. The newlyweds are now making their home on Lake Pointe Pass.

Woodstone Inn of Belleville was the setting for the rehearsal dinner hosted by the bridegroom's parents.

Kara arrives on her dad's 30th birthday

In years to come there will be a double celebration on Nov. 13 at the home of Mel and Kathy Wasser of 10198 Wheeler, Belleville, since little Miss Kara Kristine Wasser decided to arrive on her daddy's 30th birthday.

Making her debut at Oakwood Hospital in Dearborn, the infant weighed 9 lbs. - 1 oz.

She is the new sister of 4-year-old Kathleen Wasser and the new granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wasser Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Enz, all of Dearborn.

The girls' mother is the former Kathy Enz.

She's called Danielle

The birth of a daughter, Danielle Renee, is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Bart Sears of Belleville. The infant arrived at 10:26 a.m. Nov. 16 at Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti.

The granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chendious Johnson Sr. of Belleville and Mr. and Mrs. Casper Sears of Ypsilanti, the newcomer weighed 7 lbs. - 1 1/2 ozs. and measured 19 inches in length.

Suggestions for the hostess and homemaker

When you're hosting a large gathering, follow these tips from the experts: 1) Plan a main dish you can prepare ahead of time, and serve buffet style. 2) Make sure you have enough pots-pans to cook the menu you select.

3) Use cookware coated with improved Teflon-II. The non-stick surface allows leftovers to wash off easily rather than cling stubbornly to the cooking surface. 4) Choose a dessert that can be picked up with the fingers — cheese or fruits. 5) Relax — if you don't, no-one else will!

If you're a homemaker-career woman, you probably feel like Dr. Jekyll and Ms. Hyde. Make dinner-time easier and you'll avoid that schizophrenic feeling caused by doing two difficult jobs.

Here's how: 1) Cook in quantity and freeze ahead for another meal. 2) Become an expert at preparing one-dish nutritional casseroles. 3) Use Teflon-II cookware with the improved nonstick coating that speeds after dinner clean-up chores. 4) Don't be too proud to ask your family for help.

It's bazaar time

Members of the Belleville Church of God have been busy preparing for their big Christmas Bazaar which is set for Dec. 2 at the Masonic Temple on Main Street in Belleville. Hours for activities will be 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and will include handmade gifts and Christmas decorations as well as homemade candy and baked goods. Among the many pieces of fine handiwork will be this hand-crocheted afghan which will be for sale along with hand-knit and hand-embroidered articles. Mrs. Evelyn Rarrick (left), president of the Ladies Auxiliary, and Mrs. Carol Clark, wife of the church pastor, invite the public to their holiday event.

Send us your wedding information

Want to share that "special day" with those who are unable to be present in person for your wedding ceremony? We'll write the details of your wedding in story form for you — and at no charge — if you'll simply follow a few guidelines.

The Belleville Enterprise and The Romulus Roman offer bridal questionnaires for you to fill out as well as engagement forms for announcing the "start of it all." These forms include all the pertinent questions involved with your marriage or betrothal.

Forms may be picked up at our office, 116 Fourth St., Belleville (we're in the old Township Hall, side entrance) anytime during the week between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

We will also mail forms if a telephone request is made. Call Lee Smith, Suburban Living Editor, at 697-9191.

Quick cookery

Bake frozen onion rings as package directs. Serve them hot and crispy topped with creamed tuna and peas. A quick and delicious idea for lunch.

Brown hash browns according to package directions. Then spoon into individual casserole dishes. Top each with scrambled eggs and a dollop of sour cream. Sprinkle with parsley.

Ready for bazaar

The 19 Girl Scout and Brownie troops which form the Huron Township cluster will hold a Christmas Bazaar from 2 to 5 p.m. Dec. 1 at Renton Junior High School, 31578 W. Huron River Dr., New Boston. The girls will be selling crafts, baked goods, plants and refreshments and invite everyone to stop by during the afternoon. Displaying a few items for the bazaar are Deborah Erhart of Troop 264 (from left), Dena Dittman, Ann Calhoun and Carol Angel, all of Troop 464, and Robin Erhart of Troop 264.

About deadlines

As is the case with most human beings, we fail to see what we're not looking for or fail to see what we don't want to see.

In this particular instance we are referring to deadline notices which we attempt to print each week on the Suburban Living pages — boxed in notices that say "Suburban Living Deadline, Thursday, 2 p.m."

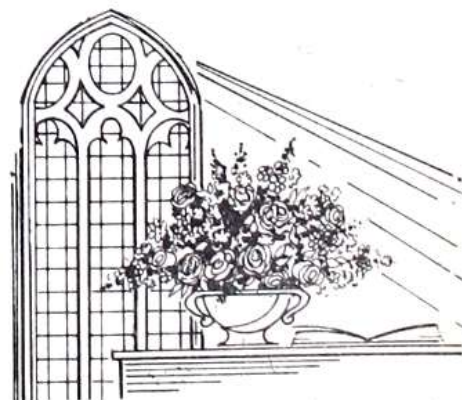

There's a reason for this deadline, be assured of that. We have to have time to prepare copy to be taken to the typesetters in our production office in Wayne.

With news coming across our desk and via the telephone throughout the day, there has to be time in which to write, re-write and edit copy as well as to compose heads and outlines and plan layouts for the next issue.

We ask that you please try to remember that 2 p.m. Thursday is the cut-off time for accepting news which you expect to see in the following week's Suburban Living section. We will gladly take items after the deadline but, more likely than not, they will be a week late appearing in print.

Your cooperation will get your stories printed on time.

'Family' the theme at holiday dinners

By Mrs. Joseph Spring
699-4021

Guests this past week at the Church Street home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hatch were their grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Michael McCoy and small son, Geoffrey, from Huntington, Conn. They all motored to Troy where they enjoyed Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy and daughters who were home from college for the holiday.

Mrs. Richard van Binder and sons, Eric and Robert, of Petersburg were Monday evening guests of the former's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clayton of Bedell Street. On Thanksgiving Day another daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Munce, with sons, Michael and Bradley, of Brighton were dinner guests of the Claytons.

Mrs. Lavern Sayre of Ecorse Road was a Thanksgiving Day guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Rank of Plymouth.

Members from Belleville who attended the regular meeting of Ypsilanti Chapter, DAR, held at the home of Mrs. Richard Warner of Ypsilanti on Friday, Nov. 18, were Mrs. Henry Deering, Mrs. Russell Seaman, Mildred Artley and Dorothy Kellas with Mrs. Ed Steinman a guest.

Mrs. Seaman, who was in charge of the program, spoke about the Society of Cincinnati which is the oldest patriotic military society of America, and showed her Ancestor's certificate of membership signed by George Washington.

The society is named after Cincinnati, the Roman leader, who left his plow five times to fight and then returned to his original occupation.

they joined Mr. and Mrs. William Martens and family from Bensenville, Ill. and John Pierman from Ottawa, Ohio, for holiday feasting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ransom of W. Huron River Drive.

The bi-monthly meeting of the Children of the American Revolution of John Terhune Society of Ypsilanti was held at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Kellas of Margery Street on Sunday, Nov. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stevens of East Huron River Drive and daughter, Suzanne of Liberty Street, were overnight guests Wednesday of Mrs. Stevens' mother, Mrs. Chester Shoup of Morenci. On Thursday they all enjoyed dinner together at the home of Mrs. Stevens' sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Knoblauch, also of Morenci.

Exotic evening planned

The YWCA of Western Wayne County will be decked out in a tropical setting Dec. 10 when it is the site of a Caribbean theme dinner-dance. Partygoers will be treated to a punch reception at 7 p.m. followed by dinner at 8 p.m. and dancing to 12 midnight for a cost of $9 per person. Proceeds from the dance will go into the "Y's" service fund. Helping to promote the event are Sue Kemp of Romulus (from left) benefit committee member; Paula Boas, benefit dance chairman; Joyce Palmer of Romulus, YWCA Council member, and Mary Willoughby of Romulus, area director, Western Wayne County YWCA.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sayre of Morton-Taylor Road had a Thanksgiving guests Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wales, parents of Mrs. Sayre; also the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. David Novak with sons, Mark, Bryan, Eric and Scott all from Ypsilanti. The Sayre's son, Jeffrey, a student at Michigan State was home for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Orr of Harmony Lane spent last weekend at Owosso with their son Larry and wife and helped him celebrate his 29th birthday.

Holiday guests of Mrs. Dorothy Kellas of Margery Street were members of her family, Mr. and Mrs. James Kellas, Jimmy and Jeff from Romulus; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Satterlee and Bryant of Westland and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kidwell, Jason and Eric of Ellen Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Reuther of Effingham, Ill. have been guests this past week of the latter's sister, Mrs. Helen White and son, James, of Bedell Street.

Guests this past week of Mrs. S.C. Pierman of East Huron River Drive were her sisters, Mrs. Joseph Allen of Piqua and Mrs. Lewis Pierman of Ottawa, Ohio. On Thanksgiving Day

Former Belleville residents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gordon of Penney farms, Fla., have been calling on friends in the community while staying with their daughter and husband, Lois and Ted Ridley and their son James and wife at Dearborn.

On Monday, Nov. 21, a dinner party in their honor was held in the Fellowship Hall at the First United Methodist Church. The 22 friends present enjoyed a bountiful pot luck dinner, visiting and discussing the various pictures they had taken. The Gordons had also attended a grandson's wedding in Wisconsin.

Thanksgiving dinner guests at the Savage Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Seaman were their daughter and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Gregory Gorga and little daughters, Stacy and Carrie, of Franklin, and David Seaman from Gaylord.

Mrs. Vern Clark and daughter, Sharon, of Bemis Road recently returned from a trip to Pompano Beach, Fla., where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Clark's niece, Beverly Eatmon, to Robert Holdorf on Friday, Nov. 11. Sharon was a bridesmaid at her cousin's wedding.

While there they attended several parties, visited relatives at Ft. Lauderdale and spent a few days with Mrs. Clark's father, Ned Delegal at Live Oaks.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Nollf of Lansing were weekend guests of their parents, the Walter Nollfs of Edison Street, and Dr. and Mrs. Allen Chen of Belleville Road.

Little Christopher Kobish of Addison spent Tuesday and Wednesday of last week with his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deering of West Columbia Avenue. He returned home with his grandparents on Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. R.G. Atyeo of Church Street entertained for Thanksgiving her daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nichols of Allen Park and Mrs. and Mrs. Theodore Lent-Koop of Dearborn.

Mrs. B.P. Hopson of Belleville Road enjoyed her holiday dinner with her son, Thornton, and family at Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nollf of Edison Street enjoyed their holiday meal with their son, Alan, wife and family at Addison Heights.

Callers at the home of Mrs. Joseph Spring of Liberty Street on Monday of last week were her sister, Mrs. William F. Demski, and her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Hasse of Dearborn.

YWCA dinner-dance has a tropical theme

An exotic evening in the Caribbean is being offered those who attend the Dinner Dance Dec. 10 at the Western Wayne County YWCA on Michigan Avenue, in Inkster.

The entire building will be decorated in tropical decor for the evening which will begin with a punch reception at 7 p.m. Dinner will be at 8 followed by dancing to a live band from 9 to midnight.

The catered dinner will boast authentic fare such as island meat balls, ham, chicken, potatoes au gratin, fresh pineapple and petit cakes for dessert.

Card tables to seat four will be set up and people are urged to fill a table, when possible. Tickets at $9 per person include the dinner and dancing, and the donation is tax deductible. Island dress or informal wear is suggested.

The Caribbean theme, was chosen by the "Y" staff because the YWCA supports work in 80 countries with one of its projects in the Caribbean while mass media is developed for educational programs. World mutual services of the "Y" work mainly toward helping women. Proceeds from the party will go into the service fund.

Lunch with Santa at Inkster YWCA

With the Christmas season around the corner, the Western Wayne County YWCA Nurseries are busy with plans for the annual "Lunch with Santa". The luncheon will be held Tuesday, Dec. 13 and Thursday, Dec. 15, at 12 noon at the YWCA, 26279 Michigan Ave., Inkster.

Lunch will be followed by entertainment by the famous "Ricky the Clown". A visit from Santa and Christmas Carol will complete a perfect day for the special little people in your life.

Tickets must be purchased in advance. The price of a ticket is $2 per person. Children must be accompanied by an adult, in order to attend the luncheon.

Christmas cards can have meaning

By MAUREEN CAMPS
ANP Staff Writer

To send Christmas cards or not to send Christmas cards — that is the question, and now is the time to decide.

Each year, families wrestle with the decision on whether or not to spend untold amounts of money and time on cards, stamps and addressing long lists of envelopes to friends and relatives.

Many families get disgusted with the "waste" of time and money and chuck the whole procedure, believing their money could be better spent.

It can be better spent, if you choose to follow a growing trend by purchasing your Christmas cards from a charitable non-profit agency.

Groups such as the National Council on Alcoholism, Michigan Cancer Foundation, Multiple Sclerosis Society, Kidney Foundation, Association for Children with Learning Disabilities, and many others, offer the cards for sale each year.

Purchase of cards from these and or by visiting the office at 1112 N. Telegraph in Dearborn.

The National Council on Alcoholism of the Greater Detroit Area has cards available in two designs at $5 and $5.50 per box of 25 cards. If cards are shipped, an extra cost is added. To get more information, or to order cards, call 864-4065.

The Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities (MACLD) sells cards at $5 per box of 25. Those can be ordered by calling 885-7987.

Other groups such as the area associations for retarded citizens, and the state Multiple Sclerosis organization frequently use this means to raise funds. If you have a favorite charity, contact them to find out if they have cards available.

All cards are imprinted with the numerous other groups represents a donation to that group. The purchase of cards for the benefit of organizations you believe to be worthwhile can put a new significance into sending of Christmas cards.

Many groups have a variety of styles available for purchase.

Some can be imprinted with your name, if ordered soon enough.

The Kidney Foundation of Michigan has six different styles of cards available for sale this year. They range in price from $3 to $6 for a box of 25. Imprinted cards must be ordered by Dec. 6.

More information on the cards can be obtained by contacting the Kidney Foundation at 3378 Washtenaw Avenue, Ann Arbor 48104, or by calling the toll free telephone number, 1-800-462-0757.

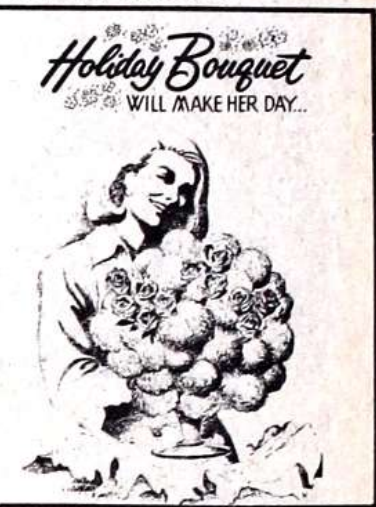

The Michigan Cancer Foundation currently is accepting orders for cards "that bear a special gift — the gift of hope for thousands of cancer patients."

Two card styles are offered at $4.50 and $5 per box of 25. To order, call the Western Wayne Unit of the Cancer Foundation at 565-1440, weekdays from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m., information that the card represents a donation, thereby spreading the word to all those you send cards to during the holiday season.

The funds collected generally are used for research, screening of patients, education of the public about the disease or cause, patient care and rehabilitation.

Christmas is five weeks away. Persons who lament the commercialization of the holidays can relay their Christmas wishes to friends and family and at the same time give a holiday gift to a charity that will benefit people in their community year-round.

CITY OF BELLEVILLE ORDINANCE NO. 77-181

AN ORDINANCE TO FURTHER AMEND ORDINANCE NO. 71-117, BEING AN ORDINANCE TO REQUIRE THE OBTAINING OF AN OCCUPANCY PERMIT UPON ANY OCCUPANCY OR REOCCUPANCY OF ANY COMMERCIAL, INDUSTRIAL, OR RESIDENTIAL BUILDING OR PART THEREOF OR ADDITION THERETO IN THE CITY OF BELLEVILLE: TO PROVIDE FOR THE INSPECTION UPON OCCUPANCY OR REOCCUPANCY OF SUCH BUILDING: AND TO PROVIDE PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION THEREOF.

THE CITY OF BELLEVILLE ORDAINS:

Section 1. That Ordinance No. 71-117, as amended, of the City of Belleville, being an ordinance to require the obtaining of an occupancy or reoccupancy permit, be and it is hereby further amended by amending Section 1 and 2 which amended Sections shall read as follows:

Section 1. OCCUPANCY PERMIT REQUIRED - It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to hereafter occupy or reoccupy or for any owner or agent thereof to permit the occupancy or reoccupancy of any building or addition thereto, or part thereof, for business, commercial, industrial, single family, or two-family residential purposes until a Certificate of Occupancy has been issued by the Building Inspector. This requirement shall apply to the occupancy or reoccupancy of a mobile home in any mobile home park. A separate Certificate shall be required for each unit of a building used for two-family residential purposes. The Certificate of Occupancy so issued shall state that the occupancy complies with all provisions of the Building Code, as amended, and all other applicable ordinances of the City of Belleville. This Section shall not apply to an occupancy in existence at the time of the adoption of this ordinance.

Section 2. EXEMPTION - This ordinance shall not apply to any business, commercial, industrial, single family or two-family residential building constructed less than five (5) years prior to the occupancy or reoccupancy; nor to any mobile home where it has been placed in a mobile home park within the City of Belleville less than five (5) years prior to the occupancy or reoccupancy; provided, that the occupancy or reoccupancy of said building does not constitute a hazard to the health, safety, or welfare of the occupant thereof, and provided further, that the Certificate of Occupancy has been issued as required by the Building Code and Zoning Ordinance, both as amended. Further, a Certificate of Occupancy shall not be required if a Certificate of Occupancy concerning subject Premises has been issued within two years immediately preceding the reoccupancy; provided, said reoccupancy does not constitute a hazard to the health, safety, and welfare of the occupant thereof.

Section 2. The effective date of this ordinance shall be Nov. 21, 1977.

December Winter's Tale

Michigan sparkles with excitement

Like the trimming on the tree, December in Michigan sparkles with excitement and enchantment.

Indoors and out-of-doors, on stage, on snow carpeted slopes and trails, Michigan defies you to be bored.

'Tis, indeed, the season to be jolly, according to the Travel Bureau of the Michigan Department of Commerce.

Nothing could "jolly" your spirits much more than a visit to "Fantasyland" at Kennedy Memorial Center in Lincoln Park through Dec. 24. All kids, regardless of age, are delighted by the streets of toy shops and candy stores, the mouse factory, nursery rhymes come to life. Santa's elves busy filling orders for Christmas Day and of course, Santa himself presides overall.

More festive fascination comes with the Christmas Carnival, Dec. 10-22 at Cobo Hall in Detroit. This holiday favorite also features "make-believe come true", animated exhibits including Frosty the Snowman, a moon house and a giant Santa.

Shoppers looking for original, or out-of-the-ordinary type, gifts might try the Christmas Bazaar Dec. 2 at the Community Center in Alma; the Christmas Sale of original art at the Center for the Arts in Midland Dec. 3; the Arts and Crafts Show at Paka Plaza in Jackson Dec. 2-3; or the Holiday Antique and Collectable Show-Sale Dec. 7-11 at the Light Guard Armory in Detroit.

On a nostalgic note, Christmas at Greenfield Village Dec. 3-31 and "The Crafts at Christmas" at Henry Ford Museum Dec. 5-31 in Dearborn recall the joy of Christmases past. In the village, buildings are decorated in keeping with their period in history, sleigh bells ring, the aromas of Christmas "goodies" and the voices of carolers fill the air. In the museum, craftsmen demonstrate the creative skills of our forebearers.

Christmas ala the 1800s is recreated with the Pioneer Christmas at Delano Homestead at the Kalamazoo Nature Center in Kalamazoo Dec. 10-11, 17-18 and 24.

From the rustic to the resplendent, the Meadow Brook Hall Christmas Walk Dec. 1-4, gives you an elegant interpretation of the season. Major rooms of the 100-room mansion are magnificently decorated to illustrate their own Christmas carol in a unique union of sight and sound. Santa Claus greets younger visitors in Knole Cottage — the six-room play house — dressed in its own fairy tale decor. Meadow Brook Hall is located on the Oakland University Campus in Rochester.

Sounds of the season will be heard throughout the month. Some of the musical highlights include the Detroit Symphony Christmas Festival Dec. 3-31 at Ford Auditorium in Detroit; Oscar Peterson in concert Dec. 10 at Hill Auditorium in Ann Arbor; the "Many Moods of Christmas" at the Center for the Arts in Midland Dec. 10-11; Christmas Pops (Rackham Symphony Choir) Dec. 16 and 18 at Ford Auditorium in Detroit; and a Christmas Festival Dec. 17 at the Interlochen Arts Academy in Interlochen, and dramatically, ageless favorites such as "Hansel and Gretel" Dec. 11 and "Amahl and the Night Visitors" Dec. 18 in the Music Hall in Detroit.

After Christmas, fun, games and good times at the Mardi Gras in Harrison Dec. 26-Jan. 1. It's a king-size winter festival for all with all sorts of things to do and watch. Guided snowmobile safaris, ice fishing, cross country skiing, cutter rides and a baseball game on snowmobiles are a few of the activities scheduled.

On the ice, the Thunder Bay Short Track Speedskating Meet is Dec. 3-4 in Alpena; Short Track Speedskating Meet at Kennedy Rink in Flint Dec. 10; and the Metro Detroit Speedskating Meet Dec. 17-18 at Farwell Field in Detroit. A hockey tournament is Dec. 26 at the Sports Arena in Jackson, and the Great Lakes Invitational Hockey Tournament is Dec. 28-29, at Olympia Stadium in Detroit.

There's competitive action on the slopes this month too with the Brule Cup Races Dec. 10-11 at Brule Mountain in Iron River; Wendell Trepp Memorial Ski Race Dec. 17-18 at Pine Mountain near Iron Mountain; and the Ski Jumping Tournament at Ironwood.

Winter is a winner in Michigan when it comes to things to do for the fun of it. For the complete program of Michigan's winter "snow show", write the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce, Box 30226, Lansing 48909 for a free copy of the Michigan Calendar of Travel Events and Winter Sports Guide.

'Winter Tale'

Zdzislaw Gumul of Clinton Township plays Hermione and Jeffrey Dreisbach of Bloomfield Hills plays Leontes in the Wayne State University premiere of "The Winter's Tale", which opened last week at the Bonstelle Theatre for a two-weekend run. The rarely produced play by Shakespeare will be performed at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday and at 2 p.m. Sunday. Tickets and information on the production can be obtained by contacting the theatre box office at 577-2960.

Meadow Brook offers 'Table Manners'

A new Alan Ayckbourn farce, "Table Manners", opened a 4-week run last week at the Meadow Brook Theatre on the campus of Oakland University in Rochester.

"Table Manners" is part of "The Norman Conquests", a trilogy of three comedies by Ayckbourn which was a hit in London and on Broadway.

Briefly, the plot of "Table Manners" is set in motion by Norman, an assistant librarian, whose mission in life (in his words) is "to make people happy" by seducing every woman in sight, including his own sisters-in-law and his wife. His spinster sister-in-law agrees to spend "a filthy weekend" with Norman until sister-in-law No. 2 finds out about the tryst and halts it. As a result the whole family ends up spending the weekend together with the addition of the spinster's reluctant fiancé.

The cast of "Table Manners" includes Eric Tavaris, Mary Gallagher, Michel Cullen, Marion Brasen, Peter McKobbie and Barbara Sohmers.

The comedy is under the direction of John Ulmer with sets by Larry A. Reed, lights by Fred Fonner and costumes by Mary Lynn Bonnell.

Performances are scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, 6 and 9:30 p.m. on Saturdays, 6:30 p.m. Sundays and 2 p.m. Wednesdays. The theatre is dark on Mondays.

Tickets for all performances may be purchased at Hudson's or by calling the Meadow Brook Theatre box office at 377-3300.

High Tar No Longer Essential To Taste.

Tests prove low tar MERIT delivers flavor of higher tar cigarettes.

For years, it seemed the only way to get real taste from a cigarette was to smoke a high tar brand.

High tar cigarettes had an "exclusive" on taste.

Today, all the standards are changing because of a new taste breakthrough called 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco.

MERIT is packed with 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco. Tobacco fortified with certain key flavor-rich ingredients isolated in cigarette smoke and proven to deliver flavor way out of proportion to tar.

Test Data Conclusive

MERIT and MERIT 100's were both tested against a number of higher tar cigarettes. Thousands of smokers were involved.

Overall, smokers reported they liked the taste of both MERIT and MERIT 100's as much as the taste of the higher tar cigarettes tested.

Coach Rod Hanna

The Sports Meridian

Eagles are flying again

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Sports Editor

Rod Hanna walks like, thinks like and talks like Dave Court, the ex-Romulus High basketball coach who disappeared from the area coaching scene some six years — has it been that long — ago?

Hanna is "all basketball." "I love the game," the 27-year-old ex-Pershing High cage star said. "And I love the kids that play it — they come first and above everything else."

That quote could have come from the mouth of Court who guided Johnny Long to All-State fame and eventually opened the doors for his prolific scorer to the University of Detroit where Long today is considered a legitimate All-America candidate.

DAVE COURT

Hanna now has the job that Court had, but he definitely doesn't have the experienced and talented players the former coach owned. After Long and Ron Bostick left the scene, Court also headed north and Jesse Meriweather, Court's assistant coach, inherited the team.

Through a series of misfortunes, including the disbanding of the Twin-Valley Conference, Romulus' cage fortunes began to dip. They were left without a league and were forced to play an independent schedule and until this day they still haven't found a league to call their own.

Meriweather, thanks to a promotion which lifted him to an assistant principalship at the high school, ended his tenure as head coach and Hanna now has the job.

Hanna knew that his new inheritance wasn't much. A series of millage defeats had left the athletes at the school frustrated and bitter — many sought residency in nearby communities in order to play this season.

Hanna himself lost key cagers who had been with him on the junior varsity or in the junior highs.

"You can not blame a kid for wanting to play ball," Hanna said. "When the millage was defeated these kids wanted to go somewhere so that they wouldn't lose out and I'm thankful that they found schools to go to."

"Sure I need them, but who can predict what will happen," Hanna added. When the Romulus electorate finally did approve the millage, most of the athletes had found other "homes".

So, not only does Hanna have to rebuild a team that has lost a majority of its experienced cagers to nearby and rival schools, he also must start from scratch.

And, because of the late start, Hanna also needs games to fill his schedule. He has a 12-game schedule presently with a two-week void starting next Friday.

"We desperately need games and if there are any coaches with open dates I would like to hear from them," he added.

"There's one thing about my players," Hanna stressed, "they have a lot of heart and a lot of discipline. I know we're going to take our lumps this year, but we're going to do a lot of learning and that is important right now — to learn."

It sure sounds like Dave Court. Just hope Hanna has as much success.

Regrouping Eagles

Romulus cage coach replacing scattered flock

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Sports Editor

Romulus voters passed its millage but not before they damaged the traditionally strong varsity basketball program.

While voters were making up their minds, several members of the varsity cage squad enrolled in neighboring school districts.

The exodus left first-year head coach Rod Hanna without Doug Matthews (5-10) and Darnell Morris (6-3), who enrolled at Wayne Memorial; Bill Streety (6-1) and Jim Merrell (6-1), who went to a Lutheran school; Tom Schick (6-4), at New Boston Huron, and Darnell Green (5-9), who is at Cherry Hill.

Hanna, an assistant coach to Jesse Meriweather, stepped into the head coaching job when Meriweather accepted an assistant principalship at the high school.

A former Pershing (Detroit) High star who played for the unforgettable Will Robinson, the 29-year-old Hanna is a Wayne State graduate who has seven years of coaching experience behind him.

Not only does the neophyte head coach have a lot of sneakers to fill, but he doesn't have much time to do it. The Eagles opened the season Tuesday night at Dearborn Heights Annapolis and will host Flint Beecher, a perennial Class B state cage power on Friday.

"The only thing that really concerns me at the present is that we haven't been together as a team for long," Hanna said. "In fact, we have practiced twice as of last Sunday."

Hanna's concerns also extend into the present schedule which has only 12 games listed.

"Because of the uncertainty of the athletic program," Hanna pointed out, "we weren't able to schedule teams. Now that we have the o.k. to go ahead, we're looking for at least eight more games."

Hanna feels that his players — though young and inexperienced — will stack up well against their rivals.

"We don't have a big man and we need one," Hanna pointed out, "but we have good people who are smart students with big hearts—and they play bigger than their size."

What Hanna does have is a group who he coached on the junior high level that are fierce competitors who will not be blown off the court.

Herb Buckley, a 5-10 guard typifies the new Eagle breed. A quick-moving ball-handler who can penetrate and hand off or go all the way for a lay-up, Buckley will be the point that the Eagles will rally around.

Romulus' center, John Kersey, is only a 6-0 junior but he can leap and battle under the boards with those five inches taller. Buckley, Kersey, along with sophomore Vince Bean (Continued on Page 2)

Goodbye for now

With the Michigan High School Athletic Association will release their annual All-State football teams. And, at the same time, the top players from The Associated Newspapers' area will also be honored, so don't miss the next edition — it is the final chapter to an exciting football season.

Knight scores 20 pts. in opener

Huron rips Melvindale; heads for Grosse Ile

Overcoming first night jitters, New Boston Huron cagers broke loose from an 8-ball first period tie and outscored Melvindale 18-10 in the second period en route to a 59-42 nonleague victory Friday.

It was the season's opener for both teams.

Huron, led by 6-6 senior center Mike Knight, who sank 20 points and hauled down 21 rebounds, had its problems unveiling a consistent offense.

"Our offense didn't work all night," said Gene Smith, who began his second year as the Chiefs' head coach. "I felt that our defense was the difference in the game. We got a solid team effort from the boys."

Neither team was on target the first eight minutes of the game, but Wright, groomed as one of the top players in the Huron Conference this year, ignited the Chiefs with eight of his game-high 20 points in the second period.

Gene Reitz and Randy Pichan then caught fire and helped out with a couple of key baskets, widening the Chiefs' lead to 12 points.

Knight finished the night with nine field goals and two free throws for his 20 points, while Pichan drilled in six baskets for 12 while Reitz picked up his 12 on four from the field and four free throws.

Only one Melvindale cager made it into double figures. Frank Goodwin collected 12 points.

The Chiefs capitalized on 11 of 18 offerings from the free throw line and the Cardinals, one of the tougher teams in the Tri-River Conference, made good on 14 of 22 charities.

Huron, which wound up as its conference's co-champ a year ago with Tecumseh, launches the defense of its title Friday night against Grosse Ile, a team that is always tough on its home court.

"You know we lost four of our five starters of a year ago," Coach Smith said, "and a lot of our success this season will depend on how fast these kids get to know one another. I feel we could be as strong as we were a year ago if this team jells."

Huron compiled an excellent 20-2 won-lost record last year.

Smith feels he can find the replacements for the four graduated cagers — Eric Snell, Dave Bennett, Craig Beattie and Terry Suemnick who were instrumental in posting that record-shattering season a year ago.

Ready to take over along with Knight, Reitz and Pichan are Greg Smith and Mark Christensen.

Belleville grooming for championship year

Malecek's wrestlers look tough

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Sports Editor

Last year set Geraki Malecek apart from his predecessors.

Malecek captured a Suburban 8 Conference wrestling championship, the first time a Belleville High wrestling coach—or any coach for that matter—had ever accomplished that feat.

And during the 1977-78 season, the Tiger mentor could widen the gap even more between himself and those who coached in bygone years.

Malecek's troops have the makings and the ammunition of becoming a state power.

"I have more seniors on this year's team than I have ever had on any of my previous teams," Malecek commented. "We have the potential to do a lot."

Malecek feels that Edsel Ford and Plymouth Salem are the two teams that could snatch the crown away from his team, but only time will tell.

The Belleville coach brought the curtains up on his sixth season as head coach at Temperance Bedford where the Tigers grabbed three gold medals, a second and third and finished behind only the host. Temperance, which also happens to be the two-time defending Class A state champ.

Temperance garnered 196½ points to win its own invitational while Belleville was second with 171½, just a half-point better than Montrose. Monroe, defending Great Lakes 8 Conference co-champs (they share the title with Wayne) was fourth with 144.

Following the top four teams were: Trenton (99½), Annapolis (90), New Boston Huron (89½), Dundee (74), Jackson Parkside (60½), Ann Arbor Pioneer (48), Lake Orion (42), Melvindale (37), Riverview (33) and Allen Park (24). Taylor Center also was represented but didn't score a point.

Belleville's Mark Ford, Carl Winekoff and Stan Johnson started the 1977-78 season auspiciously as each earned first places in their debuts.

Ford overwhelmed Tim Rourke of Melvindale 14-5 to claim the title in the 126-pound class, while Winekoff edged Rob Joseph of Bedford 4-2 to top the field in the 138-pound category and Johnson turned back Huron's Robinson 5-0 at 155.

Belleville's Rick Briggs reached the finals of the 191 pound class and was forced to settle for a second place when Montrose's Severn pinned him with two seconds remaining.

Rick Winekoff, Carl's younger brother, who has earned international acclaim on the mats—he has wrestled in Mexico City and Tehran—finished third after winning his consolation round 14-0 over Bedford's Mack.

Belleville counted three fourth places thanks to Joe Justin (119), Bob Cook (178) and Dave Cook (165), while Ed Paris finished sixth for the Tigers at 105.

Malecek's Tigers will begin the defense of its conference title Thursday when they take on Trenton at 6:30 p.m. Trenton is coached by former Romulus High mentor Jim Stallings.

Glenn invitational title on the block

A field of 13 teams will challenge John Glenn for its invitational wrestling title on Saturday.

Glenn, the defending champ, will host the meet beginning at 11 a.m.

"This year the battle for the invitational will be close," said Bob Lusk, Glenn's veteran mentor. "There really isn't one favorite but off of what they have coming back Belleville, Mt. Clemens and Farmington look tough."

Lusk said his team could be a factor in the quest for the championship trophy, "but we just don't know because we haven't really seen them in action."

"We do however have quite a few boys back from last year's team."

Joining Glenn, Belleville, Mt. Clemens and Farmington in the battle for the championship will be teams representing, Plymouth Canton, Livonia Stevenson, Bentley, Churchill, Garden City East and West, Dearborn Heights Crestwood, Edsel Ford, Taylor Center, Taylor Truman, Redford Union and Wayne Memorial.

There is an admission charge of $1 for both the 11 a.m. preliminaries and the finals.

Glenn launched the dual meet season Tuesday night against Farmington Harrison and will meet Northville Thursday night at home.

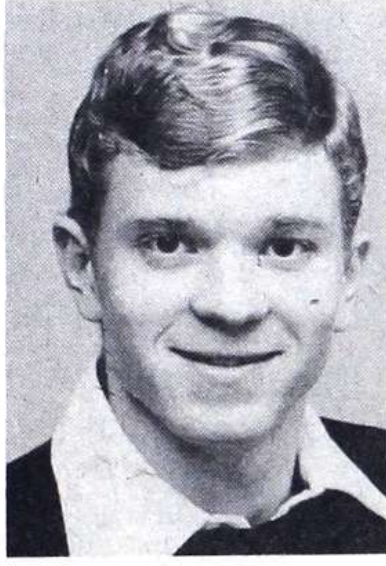

The Westlanders have several promising veterans off of last year's team that posted a 13-3 won-lost record and retained the Northwest Suburban Conference championship.

The notables on the Glenn squad this year include Dwight Barclay, Terry O'Neill, Jeff Doyle, Jerome Robinson, Jerry Cook and Greg Potuski. Other outstanding performers are Mike Collin, Bill Meyer and Rick Eisiminger.

"Most of these kids will be wrestling up a weight class from a year ago," Lusk pointed out, "so right now we don't know where they'll fit in our lineup for the tournament."

5 'blue chip' tankers make Spartans state powerhouse

With Dearborn Heights Riverside out of the way, Cherry Hill swimmers should have little trouble chalking up their fourth consecutive Tri-River Conference championship.

Riverside will not field a team because of economics — the voters failed to pass a millage and the school board in North Dearborn Heights eliminated all extra-curricular activities, including varsity athletics.

"For the past four or five years Riverside and us have been waging a pretty close race for the championship," said Cherry Hill Coach Jerry Pawloski whose Spartans have won the last three championships and also have claimed the title seven out of the last nine years.

Despite the absence of Riverside from the Class B swim scene, Pawloski sees Southgate emerging as a respected challenger and a title threat.

"Southgate didn't lose many of its swimmers to graduation," Pawloski said, "and I feel they will be in the thick of the race this season."

However, the Spartans' have a

talented team back from last year's squad which posted a 11-2 over-all record. In the forefront is Rick Kogelschatz, who missed being named to the All-America High School Swim Team by six-hundredths of a second.

Kogelschatz, a senior who has made the All-Area and All-Conference teams for the past three years, holds the Class B state record and title in the 100-yard butterfly. He has covered the ground in 52.2 and should improve upon that mark this season.

"Rick is an excellent swimmer who obviously has gained national recognition for his feats," Pawloski pointed out. "We can use him just about anywhere we want in our lineup."

Pawloski has at least four others who have earned state-wide recognition for their abilities. They are Eric Wohlfeil, Scott Lillie, Gary Schuler and Ken Pickett.

Wohlfeil is a senior who specializes in the freestyle sprints and was a member of the Spartan freestyle relay team that won the state crown a year ago.

Eric also has been named to the All-Area and All-League teams.

Lillie, another All-Area, All-Conference swimmer, was a member of the Spartans 200-yard medley and 400-yard freestyle relay teams that were the best in the state in Class B competition a year ago.

Schuler is one of the tri-captains and is a four-year veteran. He qualified for the state finals in the 200 and 500 yard freestyle events and has been labeled as one of the best distance swimmers in the school's history.

Pickett is "Mr. Everything" on the team. An individual medley and distance swimmer, Ken qualified for the state meet a year ago and will be among the best at the finals this year.

With these five as a nucleus, Cherry Hill isn't ready to relinquish the league championship this year. And they could be the top team in Class B...an accomplishment Pawloski has been dreaming about for the past 11 years. The road begins for the Spartans on Dec. 6 against Riverview, another of the top "B" powers in the state.

Eagles regrouping

(6-0), the Lewis brothers — Richard and Darnell — plus Don Carter and Stu Block will have the responsibility of "bringing basketball back to Romulus."

Once a mighty power in the state when All-American candidate Johnny Long and Ron Bostick wore Eagle uniforms, Romulus plummeted in the past three years and has not been able to regain its statewide image of a cage power.

"I want people to say that Romulus is back in basketball and I want to go as far as we can in the tournament," Hanna pointed out as two of his team's goals.

Because of their talent and heights, past Romulus teams could afford to play helter-skelter basketball and come out shooting and win, unfortunately, Hanna won't have that luxury.

"We're going to have to play a more deliberate offense," Hanna said. "Sure, we'll fast break when we have the opportunity, but we're going to gear our offense for the layup or the short jumper and on defense our objective will be not to give up a layup."

"If we get beat, we're going to beat from the outside shot," Hanna added.

There may be a dark cloud over Romulus athletics caused by the millage controversies of the past, but it looks like that will soon be lifted.

5 from area earn WSU letters

Among the 39 members of the Wayne State University football squad who received letters for their performances this season were five players from the area.

The letter-winners included: Randy Alexander, of Inkster; Randy Epley, co-captain, a Westland resident and graduate of Livonia Franklin, Terry Johnson, Westland John Glenn, Dean Morrison, of Westland (Livonia Franklin) and Dan Quinn, also of Westland and a Franklin alumnus.

The awards were presented at the annual Wayne State Football Bust that was held at the Warren Chateau. Even though the Tartars are losing 20 seniors, head coach Dick Lowry and his staff will return 19 lettermen for the 1978 spring drills.

"The future of our team continues to look bright," Lowry added.

All-Area gridders will bow next week

With the Michigan High School Athletic Association crowning the state champs in each of the four classes last Saturday, the prep football season came to an end Saturday at the Silverdome in Pontiac. This week many of the metropolitan newspapers and The Associated Press will release their annual All-State football teams. And, at the same time, the top players from The Associated Newspapers' area will also be honored, so don't miss the next edition—it is the final chapter to an exciting football season.

This could be year CH fans are waiting for Dick McNally will have the best of two leagues to make the 1977-78 basketball season his best ever as a coach.

The veteran Cherry Hill coach has four of his cagers back from a squad that won the Tri-River Conference championship a year ago and his line-up will include a couple of noteworthy Great Lakes 8 Conference players who led Taylor Center to the championship last year.

The blend, if mixed correctly, could make Cherry Hill a strong challenger for the Class B state title.

The Spartans launched their combined forces last week and crushed Garden City East 81-65. They were to take on Westland John Glenn Tuesday night and play Schafer Friday in the Tri-River Conference opener.

"We have the potential of becoming an outstanding ball club," McNally said. "However, a lot depends on how we blend the new talent. There are new philosophies, ideas that must be incorporated and only time will tell us just how well we have accomplished this."

Jordan didn't waste any time establishing himself in a new uniform. He sank 23 points to spark Cherry Hill to the relatively easy victory over East. Simmons also got off to an excellent start as he contributed 20 points.

With Jordan and Simons each collecting eight points in the first period, the Spartans leaped to a 12-point lead, 22-9, over Coach Billy Joe Young's Panthers. The Panthers outscored their rivals 18-16 in the second period, but couldn't make up for the late start. Cherry Hill came back to take control 22-16 in the third period and McNally had an opportunity to use most of his bench in the last eight minutes.

"We played in spurts," McNally commented. "We would play exceptionally well, then slack off."

Lou Gregory gave the Spartans control of the defensive board and his passes ignited the winner's fast-break. He also contributed eight points.

Jordan made good on 11 field goals and chalked up a free throw for a game-high 23 points, while Simmons collected all of his 20 points on 10 direct hits from the floor. Tyrone also counted 20 rebounds for the game.

East's Jim Dziekan and Mike Kossick were the mainstay of the Panther offense as they sank 20 and 19 points, respectively. Tim Taylor added 13.

Cherry Hill's holdovers from last year, Tim Corden, a senior who can leap well, and Pierre Hudson, a junior guard along with George Johnson, a 6-1 junior forward give the Spartans a lot of depth, while the newcomers who include Gregory, a 6-6 postman from last year's Taylor Center squad, and Don Callaway, a starting pointman for the Rams a year ago, along with Romulus' Darnell Green, also a transfer because of millage problems in that school district, and Aaron Gregory, Lou's younger brother, could make this the year Cherry Hill fans have been waiting for.

Plymouth Skating Club host to regional championship

The Eastern Great Lakes Regional Figure Skating Championships, one of the key stepping stones to the U.S. Olympics, will be decided in the City of Wayne, thanks to the efforts of the Plymouth Skating Club.
The championships will be held at the Wayne Arena, Annapolis and Howe Rd., on Dec. 1 through the 3.
"Featured here will be internationally as well as nationally known figure skaters," said Bob James, a member of the organizing committee. "These championships will help determine the qualifiers for the Midwestern Invitational, the next stop to the Olympics."

Officials of the United States Figure Skating Association will be conducting the 1978 EGLR championships and there will be approximately 150 amateur skaters from seven states vying for titles in various categories.
"The Plymouth Club has chosen the Wayne Community Center as the host facility because of its excellent facility and seating capacity," James pointed out. "To our knowledge the Detroit Metropolitan area has never before been graced with a championship event of this size and we expect a capacity attendance during the three days of competition."
The competition will get underway on Thursday, Dec. 1 at 7 a.m. with the senior ladies figures, then the junior men's figures, followed by the juvenile ladies and men's figures. The afternoon program on that day will include: novice men and ladies figures and junior men short program.
The evening program, slated for 7 p.m. will highlight the Gold Dance (3 compulsory), Senior Ladies Short Program and Silver Dance Initial.

There is an action packed Friday program which also starts at 7 p.m. and ends with the Gold Dance competition and Saturday the championships will conclude.
Mayor Paul Lada of Wayne said he was happy that "they had selected our city to stage this prestigious championship."
"We are indeed honored and I know that our visitors as well as our residents will enjoy the unique opportunity to get to know one another."
"We welcome the regional skaters and wish them all the luck and success in the world," Mayor Lada added.
The area has produced some strong national and international competitors who will be skating at the Wayne arena to requalify for the current season's competitions.
The midwestern championships will be staged in Chicago in January, then those who survive the test will advance to the nationals slated for Oregon in February of 1978.

Here is the program for Friday, Dec. 2 at the Wayne Arena: Start-7 a.m.-Junior Ladies Figures; Intermediate men figures; and intermediate ladies figures; AF-TERNOON - Juvenile men free, juvenile ladies free, junior ladies short, junior pairs short and Silver Dance; the EVENING program includes Veterans Dance Initial, Junior Men Free, Senior Ladies Free and Gold Dance;
The Saturday, Dec. 3 program features: Intermediate men free at 10 a.m.; Intermediate ladies free, and Bronze Dance Initial; AF-

"To our knowledge the Detroit area has never before been graced with a championship event of this size."

TERNOON, Novice men free; Novice ladies free, Bronze Dance final, Veterans Dance final and Novice Pair; the EVENING program will begin at 7:30 p.m. with the Silver Dance (Free), Gold Dance (Free) Junior Ladies (Free), and Junior Pairs (final).
There will be an awards' presentation after the competition.

About your host...

The Plymouth Figure Skating Club was established in 1972 and it is sanctioned by the United States Figure Skating Club.
From a small core of 35 members, the Plymouth Club grew to 127 members in 1977.
In November of each year, the club sponsors a dance weekend called "Pizzaz", which is a fun weekend for all dancers from Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Indiana and Canada.
There are eight hours of program dance, a dance clinic which, this year was instructed by Jeff Platzer from Fort Wayne giving the technical fine points of dancing.
This was followed by evening dinner and dancing featuring Jack Barnes and Disco Dancing.
It concludes on Sunday Morning with Ice Dancing and a brunch.
We have many competitors which in the past year have brought home team trophies from Sarnia, Ontario, and Tri-State competition which was held in Lansing, Michigan this year. Representing Plymouth, we have two skaters in the Juvenile Ladies Division, Mary Beth Caffrey and Tracy Moore; and one bronze dance pair Bob James and Kimberly Byzek, taking part in the Eastern Great Lakes Figure Skating Championships.

All competitors taking part in figure skating competition must put in many hours of practice time, both in school figures as well as free-style. This brings skaters to the rink, before school hours, at 6:00 a.m., til the late hours of the evening.
Practice is the key word of figure skating.
To qualify for a level of free-style, testing in school figures are a must. Test sessions are held throughout the year to help skaters qualify for competitions. The hard work, endurance and dedication of a figure skater is rewarded by their successes in competitions and hopefully with sights set on that dream of all — the Olympics.

Community center facts and figures

The Wayne Recreation Center, which houses the Olympic-size ice rink, is a dream come true for Wayne and its residents. It came a reality after much debate, compromise and the work of men who wanted a better Wayne for their children.
On April 3, 1973, the citizens of Wayne approved a general bond issue for a multi-use recreation center and ice arena for $1,995,000. Groundbreaking ceremonies took place in June, and construction began in September, 1973. The building opened on October 26, 1974.

The Community Center covers 67,000 square feet, including the Olympic size ice rink (200' x 85'). Included in the arena facilities are a snack bar, warming area, control room, four locker rooms, first aid and officials' room, a pro shop operated by Jack's Sporting Goods, and seating for approximately 2000 persons.
During the summer months the arena could be used for tennis, roller skating, band concerts, country & western music shows, a circus, ethnic festivals, boat shows, home & garden shows and Summer Festival activities.

The multi-purpose room, which is divisible five ways by floor-track vinyl soundproof doors, will be used for dance classes, card clubs, meetings, banquets, karate classes, yoga lessons, movies, guitar lessons, square dancing, area service club meetings, luncheons, senior citizen activities, pre-school activities and handicapped programs.
Other features in the Center include:

square feet

Glenn starts cage year with easy win

Though they played "in spurts," Coach Gordie Davis is satisfied with his Rockets' first test.

Davis unleashed his Glenn cagers against Taylor Kennedy Friday night and they responded with a 78-59 victory in the season opener for both teams.

"We played well, but in spurts," said Davis whose team will take on a highly-touted Clarenceville quintet Friday night in Westland.

"I think that the third quarter was our best quarter," Davis continued, "that's when we moved the ball well, played defense and shot well."

Glenn led all the way after establishing an 18-9 advantage. Kennedy exchanged baskets equally in the second eight minutes of the duel and left the court trailing 37-28, however, the Rockets put the game out of reach for all purposes when they outscored their nonleague rivals, 29-16 in the third period. Mitch Preston, who played an excellent all-around game, along with Pat McBride and Tom Jurewicz provided the Rockets with the balance scoring in the pivotal third period. Each scored four points.

Davis emptied the bench in the final period, giving everyone an opportunity to play.

Preston launched his senior campaign by scoring 18 points, the game's high. He hit on seven field goals and four free throws. Doug Martin and McBride also wound up in the double figure scoring column as they accounted for 12 and 10 points, respectively.

Jurewicz, who chipped in eight points, nailed down nine rebounds.

The Westlanders also looked good at the free throw line where they cached in for 20 of 29 shots, while Kennedy made a dismal 19 of 33 from the charity line.

Before confronting Clarenceville, Glenn had a Tuesday evening date to keep with Cherry Hill, one of the top teams in the area this year.

Davis could learn a lot about this year's Rocket cage model with the outcome of that game.

"Cherry Hill is a team a lot of people will be keeping their eyes on," Davis said. "They have a couple of transfers from Taylor that could make them a state title contender if everything goes well."

Hit hard by graduation, Belleville's Vicchy rebuilds

Hit hard by graduation, Belleville swimmers will have to close ranks fast if they are going to have any kind of season.

Sam Vicchy, who is entering his eighth year as head Tiger coach, is looking to "a good crop of sophomores and a core of experienced seniors to survive this year."

"We graduated 10 kids and lost another 10 for other reasons," Vicchy said, "so we're hurting number-wise. We don't have a lot of depth, but if our sophomores come through we'll have a respectable season."

"But, definitely, we have our job cut out for us," Vicchy added.

Of the 10 swimmers who helped the Tigers post a 13-3 won-lost record and finish second in the tough Suburban 8 Conference, three were awarded scholarships to Wayne State University. The recipients of those scholarships are Mark Stoelton, Mike Anguilm and Ray Paponetti.

All three were members of last year's All-Area swim team and were instrumental in leading the Tigers to a victory at the prestigious Western Wayne Invitational.

Stoelton is a freestyle sprinter, while Anguilm is an excellent distance freestyler and Paponetti earned his niche of fame on the diving boards.

Another member of last year's squad, Harold Gable, also was awarded a scholarship and is presently swimming for Pasadena College in California.

"We're really proud of these kids," Vicchy commented. "It's rare to have so many swimmers from one school being singled out for scholarships."

Vicchy unveiled his 1977-78 swim model last night against Wyandotte and will take on natural rival, Ypsilanti, Thursday at the Braves' pool.

If the Tigers are to move out of the shadows of the perennial conference champ, Dearborn, which also is a state Class A powerhouse, then swimmers such as Howard Renton, Terry Caves, Scott Hennells, Jeff Burgess, Joe Thomas, Tim Whittico, Tim Frey, Jim Anguilm and Chris Liedel must come through for the team.

Belleville, noted for its divers, will remain true to that tradition thanks to several standouts who include Dana Thorp, Kevin McKelvey, Tim McClelland, Mark Mills and Ron Frederick.

"Dearborn is tough again," Vicchy pointed out. "We're going to have to work hard to even come close to them."

Grissom's world

Preparing venison

By SAM GRISSOM
Outdoor Writer

Each year I hear many hunters lamenting the fact that while they are quite fond of venison, their families detest it. They object to the wild taste, and some wives even refuse to cook it.

One method of preparing your deer that requires no help from the little lady is to make it into summer sausage. A friend of mine now makes his entire deer into sausage and his family loves it.

Making the sausage is really quite simple and the key ingredient is patience. To begin you bone your deer and remove as much fat as possible and then place boned meat in the refrigerator to "age". The next thing you'll need to make is Dry Cure for meat. The cure will store indefinitely so don't worry about making too much.

DRY CURE FOR MEAT

5 lbs. salt
1 lb. white sugar
1 oz. saltpeter
2 tablespoons of garlic powder
2 tablespoons of onion powder
1 small package of whole mixed pickling spices.
Mix the ingredients thoroughly, then allow to stand for at least 24 hours before using.

The next item you will need is the casing for the sausage. Either muslin or natural skin casings will work equally well. Due to the large size of the sausage you can stuff the casing by hand without too much difficulty. In this area the closest source of natural casings that I could find is Salem Packing Company, 10665 Six Mile Rd., Northville, (telephone 349-4430). If you decide to use natural casings be sure to purchase the largest available.

The best size would be a three to four inch casing.

Probably the best casing is the ones made from muslin. Most dry goods stores carry muslin and making the casing is quite simple.

First, tear unbleached muslin into strips eight inches by 18 inches. Fold in half lengthwise and iron flat. The salvage edge of the cloth is to be left for the open end of the casing. Sew the opposite end in an arc and continue up the edge of the material. With pinkish shears cut the excess material from the edge and remove any loose threads. Turn inside out and it is ready to use.

Take the venison from the refrigerator after two days and you are ready to start making sausage. Ingredients:

12 lbs. lean venison
8 lbs. pork butt
1 lb. 12 ozs. dry cure for meat
4 ozs. salt
3 ozs. white pepper
1 oz. coriander seed
1-3 oz. mustard seed
1-2 oz. whole black pepper seed
1 tablespoon garlic powder
40 fluid ounces dry red wine

Mix and grind the venison and pork with a medium texture blade in your grinder. Mix the meat thoroughly with Dry Cure, white pepper and garlic powder and regrind. Spread meat in shallow pan and refrigerate for four days. Next you add the other ingredients including the wine and spread as before and allow to stand in refrigerator for an additional two days.

Next stuff the sausage into casings. Pack the casings as full and firmly as possible to eliminate any air pockets. Store the sausage for two days in your refrigerator and you are then ready to start the smoking process.

Hang the sausage in your smoke oven and smoke at a low temperature (85-95 degrees) for 12 to 15 hours until the casing turns a dark brown.

Once the smoking is complete the sausage will store indefinitely at room temperatures, however, most people have trouble eating just a little. When its gone you can substitute beef and make more.

One thing for sure, you'll never again have trouble getting your family to eat venison.

Chiefs make coaching change

The Wayne Chiefs have made a coaching change in mid-stream.

Ray Fraser is back as head coach, replacing Pat Behan, who handled the squad for the first 18 games and finished with a 6-9-3 won-lost-record.

The Wayne Chiefs, owned by A. J. Williams, are affiliated with the Junior 'A' Hockey League and are presently seated in fourth place in the five team Great Lakes Junior Association.

Fraser has been associated with winners in previous seasons as his hockey teams have won the Junior B state championship.

Among the team's top performers is 16-year-old Jim Gardiner, a player with five years of hockey experience behind him; "walk-on"

Mike Barta, who, along with Gardiner scored a hat trick in a 10-8 loss to the Junior Red Wings.

Wayne will have in its lineup forward David Herrst, a member of the state championship team of a year ago. Herrst was obtained in a trade with the Fraser Highlanders.

"We're hoping to obtain some of the other players we had on that state championship team," Fraser pointed out, "including Marty Kositz."

Cleveland's Barons however spoiled Fraser's return as coach and won a 6-1 decision over their rivals. After the game Fraser commented, "We've got a lot of work to do and one of the major tasks ahead is conditioning. We're going to have to go back to the basics."

AUTO FACTS

By Chet Kosin

Proper maintenance, including well-spaced tune-ups, will make a lot of troubleshooting in the family car unnecessary by heading off malfunctions before they reach the critical stage. And there are some factors which may make the engine seem to be working badly when it isn't. Tire pressures that are too low, for instance, besides being harmful to the tires themselves, can result in decreased performance; the engine must work harder to drive the car.

Do-it-yourself mechanics are always welcome at KOSIN'S AUTO PARTS, 26831 Michigan Ave., Inkster, where you will find all the parts, tools and accessories you need to keep your foreign or domestic car running at its best. Our expert staff is always happy to answer questions and help you select the parts you need for your particular car. We also have a fully-equipped machine shop and our mechanics work on all types of engines from motorcycle to diesel. We tackle the most challenging of machine shop and engine repair problems. Call us at 563-3894. We are open daily from 8 A.M. until 8 P.M., and on Saturdays until 5 P.M. AUTO TIP: Running an engine whose oil pressure is inadequate can destroy it in minutes.

MHSAA reveals playoff sites

Churchill to host Glenn, Wayne cagers

Though Pat Montagano, Livonia Churchill's head cage coach may not know it, he did get his way with the Michigan High School Athletic Association.

The MHSAA has been packing all five Class A Livonia teams into the district playoffs at Livonia in the past and Montagano has spoken out against that practice.

This year Montagano has won. The MHSAA's recent release on tournament sites and dates places only one other Livonia school at the Churchill playoff.

Coach Montagano's Chargers will host city rival Franklin, but will have on their hands Wayne Memorial, Westland John Glenn, Lincoln Park, and Wyandotte Roosevelt.

Plymouth Salem, one of the state Class A powerhouses a year ago, was ousted from state competition a year ago at Southfield and Coach Fred Thomann's Rocks will return to that site again this season.

Salem will have to worry about Detroit Chadsey, Northville and Plymouth Canton at the Southfield district.

Ypsilanti, the defending district and regional champ, will again defend its title but this time it will have to worry about teams from Monroe, Temperance-Bedford, Trenton along with arch-rival, Belleville.

Belleville lost to its arch rivals by one point in last district finals.

New Boston Huron, a team that amassed an enviable 20-2 won-lost record a year ago, is scheduled for Class B action at Riverview. Riverview will also entertain Flat Rock, Woodhaven, Gibraltar Carlson, Grosse Ile, Riverview Gabriel Richard.

Robichaud has also been designated as the host school for a Class B playoff which will bring together teams from St. Alphonse (Dearborn), Riverside, University of Detroit High, Inkster Cherry Hill, Inkster High and Divine Child, the defending Class B state basketball champs.

enjoyed intimidating their opponents with a full-court press, putting pressure whenever and wherever the ball was.

Henry will continue to try "to ascertain our quickness on our opponents and we're going to really work hard to build on team offense and team defense."

EMU honors Slamer, Arnold, 2 former All-Area gridgers

For the second year in a row Al Slamer, former Wayne Memorial All-Area gridder, has been named the recipient of the Harold E. Sponberg Award at Eastern Michigan University.

The award is given to the EMU down lineman who combines athletic achievement with scholastic excellence. Slamer was presented the award at the 15th Annual EMU Football Bust, held Nov. 21 at the Plymouth Hilton Inn.

The award is named after the late Harold E. Sponberg, EMU president from 1965-74.

Slamer has a 3.23 grade point average in Special Education for the Emotionally Impaired. He is a 1973 graduate of Wayne Memorial High School.

The 6-3, 235 pound Slamer was an All-Mid-American Conference academic team member last season. He is a four-year letterwinner on the Huron team and was a tri-captain this year.

Slamer ended his EMU career with 118 solo tackles and 153 assists for 271 total tackles. He was named defensive "Huron of the Week" for outstanding efforts against Akron in 1976 and Kent State in 1977.

Another former All-Area gridder, Keith Arnold, of Inkster High fame was named the "Most Improved" offensive players for the 1977 Hurons. He was honored at the banquet.

A 6-3, 235 pounder, Arnold became a full-time regular this season after three years as a spot starter. He made the transition to starter effectively and was one of the prime reasons the Hurons were able to break an EMU record for total offense this year with 4,264 yards.

He was named offensive "Huron of the Week" for his outstanding play against Kent State this season.

"Keith just paid us back for the confidence we had in him," said EMU head coach Ed Chlebek. "He did a great job as a senior and was tremendous working with younger kids in the program."

Basically a man-to-man team, Wayne will for the first time in recent years have the horses to make a run for the title, according to Henry.

"I really consider us a contender," Henry added. "The first game will be a good indicator of what to expect. Unfortunately, it will be our first game of the season while Truman will be moving in here with at least one game under their belt. They play Schafer Tuesday in their opener."

Along with Truman, Henry is discounting Fordson's perennial title plans. The tractors will have back in their line-up, Bill Cibulka who, as a junior a year ago, was among the top scorers in the conference.

League swim champs

Displacing the trophy they helped win, Westland John Glenn swimmers also earned league titles in both the 400-yard freestyle relay and in diving. Janet Borgerding captured top honors on the boards. She's seated in front and is flanked by Theima Kew (at left) and Kelly Lang who, along with Kathy Mahakian and Michele Kubiak teamed to win the freestyle relay. In the center holding the conference trophy is Coach Jean Garbus who ended her four year tenure as head coach, giving reasons for her resignation as "wanting to devote more to a traveling bureau business she is associated with."

It was the first time in the six year history of the Northwest Suburban Conference that a team had beaten North Farmington out for the girls' swim championship.

GLIAC picks top gridgers

Former All-Area gridgers considerations on the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference All-Conference football team this season.

The Wayne State Tartars placed five members of its team on the 1977 GLIAC All-Conference team with two former Livonia Franklin players being awarded berths on the squad.

Leading the way was Randy Epley, senior co-captain who was named at one of the linebacker spots as he finished the season with 156 tackles, including 87 solos. Epley's teammate at Franklin who also is wearing a Tartar grid uniform, Dean Morrison, was picked as a split end.

WSU also gave former gridgers outstanding awards such as the top back award which went to slotback Dan Quinn, also of Livonia Franklin fame. The Number 35 award, in honor of former Tartar football player, Ron Solack, was presented to senior linebacker Epley. The outstanding defensive back award for 1977 went to Bob LaParl, while Terry Johnson, former John Glenn gridger, was named

Belleville gals finish 4th at conference swim

Though the potential of a winning team is there, Belleville's girls' swimming team didn't have the experience this year to stay abreast with Suburban 8 Conference powerhouse Plymouth Salem.

Salem recently captured the 1977 version of the conference championship, while Belleville finished fourth behind Trenton, Dearborn and head of Edsel Ford and Livonia Bentley.

"I feel our girls have a lot of potential," said first year head coach Doug Stosick, "however, our lack of experience and confidence in themselves held us back. When we get enough competitive swimming experience behind us, we'll be all-right."

Belleville emerged from the league championships with one gold medal - the 400-yard freestyle relay team captured a first place thanks to the performance of Karen MacDermid, Martha Ryznar, Dru Stroeble and Janna Harris. The

Chelsea dunks Tiger tankers

Despite some excellent individual performances by members of the Tiger Swim Club, the Belleville swimmers found themselves on the shortend of a 245.5 to 206.5 Super '6' Conference swim decision against Chelsea.

The local swimmers returned with four individual gold medals as Mollie Murphy captured a first in the 9-10 age group, taking the 25-yard butterfly in 16.7.

Kathy Kutbiske also turned in with a first place for her efforts in the 50-yard butterfly for 11-12 year old girls. The winning time was posted as 33.7.

Wolfpack boosters hold elections

The first meeting of the season of the Wayne Wolfpack Boosters Club, a group organized for the support of the Wayne Memorial Wrestling team, was held at the school's Media Center Lecture Hall Monday, Nov. 21 at 7:30 P.M.

The light turnout was addressed briefly by rookie head coach John Wood and an election of officers was held.

New officers elected were: President - Gerald

Choose Now from 29 new '78 models.

78's are here... biggest new car inventory EVER

High volume means two things to you: a low price and a large selection. So we now have the biggest inventory ever—over a hundred new 1978 Toyotas.

You know how we like to set sales records... we did in '77 and that's why they've sent us so many new cars. Well, we intend to break all records in '78. So you'll get a bigger selection at the best possible price.

Remember, three things have made us the number one import dealer in the area. One, we sell Toyotas. Two, we sell at the lowest price possible. And three, we don't sacrifice service to volume. At Toyota Ann Arbor, you get the most car for your money.

the more we sell, the more we get the more we get, the better the deal

The Saga of Ebenezer Squeezer

Ebenezer was a saver. Saved string, all sorts of things. Finally one day as he was searching through his cluttered abode, he became hopelessly lost amid the knicks and the knacks and the whats and the nots and was never heard from again.

Poor Ebenezer, if he had only known that he could have converted those no longer used items into quick cash by using the Want Ads. Life would have been beautiful... neater... more profitable.

EARL KEIM REALTY

I WANT YOU... TO ENJOY A

TAX SHELTER

DO YOU HAVE A "TAX LOOPHOLE?"
You may not think of home ownership as a "tax loophole" but it is one of the best tax shelters around.

A home is a sound investment for most families even with modest means. When you own your home, you get income tax breaks by including real estate taxes and interest payments in itemized deductions.

Plus...real estate values are expected to increase in the years ahead, as they have in the past. When you sell your house, the increase in value is a Capital gain which generally is taxed at 50 percent of the rate for ordinary income. Taxes can be postponed by reinvesting the proceeds in another home that costs as much as is realized from the sale of the old house.

Enjoy a new or better home and get a tax shelter as well.
